(II) Rules of Order of the North Indiana Conference.

RULE 1. The Conference shall meet at 8:30 A. M., and adjourn at 12.30 P. M. But the Conference may, in its discretion, alter the time of meeting and adjournment.

RULE 2. The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but in case of such appeal the question shall be taken without debate, except that the appellant may make a simple statement of the grounds of his appeal.

RULE 3. All resolutions and motions shall be in writing, if the President, Secretary, or any two members request it.

RULE 4. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of the Conference, at any time before amendment or decision.

RULE 5. The motions to Lay on the Table, to Take from the Table, and for the Previous Question, shall be taken without debate.

RULE 6. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following motions should intervene, which shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely:

(1.) To fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn.
(2.) To adjourn.
(3.) To take a recess.
(4.) To lay on the table.
(5.) For the previous question.
(6.) To postpone to a given time.
(7.) To refer.
(8.) To substitute.
(9.) Amendment.
(10.) To postpone indefinitely.

A motion to amend an amendment shall be in order, and a substitute for both amendments may be received, which substitute may be amended only once, and, if a substitute be accepted, it shall operate as an amendment to the original proposition.

RULE 7. When any member is about to speak in debate, or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the President, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

RULE 8. No member shall be interrupted while speaking, except by the President to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

RULE 9. When a member desires to speak to a question of privilege, he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the President shall have decided it a privileged question.

RULE 10. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than ten minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

RULE 11. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider a non-debatable motion shall be decided without debate.

RULE 12. No member shall absent himself from the service of the Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

RULE 13. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when such question shall be put by the President, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

RULE 14. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall give his vote, unless the Conference, for special reasons, shall excuse him.

RULE 15. It shall be in order to move that the question be taken without further debate on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved, and if sustained by a vote of two thirds, the question shall be taken.

RULE 16. The motion to adjourn shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except, (1) when a member has the floor; (2) when a question is actually put, or a vote is being taken; (3) When the question is pending on seconding the demand for the previous question; (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained, and is still pending; and (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.

RULE 17. These rules shall not be suspended except by a vote of two thirds of the members present and voting.

JOURNAL OF THE NORTH INDIANA ANNUAL CONFERENCE, METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

FIRST DAY.

Elkhart, Indiana, Wednesday, April 5, 1922.

The North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church convened in its seventy-ninth session in Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, Elkhart, Indiana, Bishop Frederick D. Leete, D.D., LL.D., presiding. At 8.30 A. M. the Bishop called the Conference to order, and announced hymn 415,

"Faith of our fathers,"

After singing of two stanzas of this hymn the Bishop offered prayer. At the close of the singing of the third stanza the Bishop gave an address on the meaning of the atonement. Prayer was offered by Bishop Leete. He announced hymn 315,

"Nearer, my God, to Thee,"

which was sung. The Bishop prepared us for the sacrament of the Lord's Supper by reading the ritual lesson. At his request the District Superintendents and the pastor of the local church came to the platform and assisted in the consecration of the elements and the distribution of the same to the people.

At his request the retired ministers and their wives came to the first table. This was followed by the men in the classes and their wives partaking of the elements. After the others had availed themselves of the sacramental service, the Bishop closed this service according to the ritual form.

Memorial Service.—The Bishop requested the Secretary of the Conference to preside at the memorial services. He announced hymn 463,

"Jesus, lover of my soul," which was sung. At the close of the singing of this hymn at the request of the Bishop, the Secretary read the list of names of the members of the Conference who had died within the last year. The following names were so recorded: E. F. Hasty, S. C. Miller, R. C. Jones, A. S. Wooton, Eli Davis, J. M. Haines, M. A. Harlan, S. L. Cates, B. E. Jones. Prayer was offered by C. E. Line.

The presiding officer then called the attention of the Conference to the fact that we have a larger death list this year than ever before in the history of the Conference, and that not only nine members of the Conference had died, but that death had taken away nine wives or widows of the Conference. He read the following list: Mrs. Bishop Fisher, Mrs. Mary F. Walker, Mrs. Mary J. Lamport, Mrs. Josephine Bentley, Mrs. Lucy M. Young, Mrs. Lona Pittenger, Mrs. Elizabeth Rogers, Mrs. Sarah Anderson, Mrs. Ellen Curtis. He then introduced T. M. Guild, who delivered the Memorial Address, on the theme:

"What is your life?"

At the close of the address Brother Guild offered prayer. On motion of C. E. Line, it was ordered that a letter of condolence be sent to Bishop Nicholson, on account of the recent death of his daughter, who was a teacher in Earlham College, situated within the territory of our Conference.

Hymn 490,

"Saviour more than life to me,"

was announced and sung.

Bishop Leete then baptized Robert Everett, infant son of W. E. Pittenger, the memoir of whose mother is published in the Minutes this year. Bishop Leete offered prayer, invoking the divine blessing on the baby and loved ones.

The sermon was full of inspiration and very helpful to the great audience that filled to capacity the entire church. The morning hour of worship was concluded by singing hymn 180,

"All hail the power of Jesus' name."

The benediction was pronounced by the Bishop.

Ordination Service.—At three o'clock the Ordination Service was opened by singing

"Nearer, my God, to Thee,"

while the Bishop, Secretary of the Conference, candidates for ordination, and the Cabinet marched in and took their respective places. Following this there was a Consecration Service for a Deaconess, Miss Mary Josephine Metts, who was presented by F. F. Thornburg, President of the Conference Board of Deaconess Work. She was consecrated according to the Disciplinary form.

The Bishop spoke briefly and in an impressing manner on "The minister as a teacher, preacher, and healer." Gaylord V. Saunders, R. Lowell Wilson, J. F. Stephenson, and E. E. Franklin spoke briefly on the subject, "My Calling and Purpose." Somerville Light, at the request of the Bishop, delivered the charge to the candidates, in an excellent and eloquent address on the subject, "As Good Ministers of the Gospel." A quartet from the local choir rendered a beautiful selection.

At the request of the Bishop, the Secretary called the names of the following, who had been elected to be ordained Deacons, and presented them to the Bishop for ordination. After they had taken the vows, the Bishop, with the assistance of Elders, ordained them Deacons: Herbert A. Clugston, Thomas Henderson, Ross J. Hutsinpiller, Gaylord V. Saunders, Victor E. Stoner, Oliver P. Van Y, and R. Lowell Wilson.

The Secretary called the names of the following, who had been elected to be ordained Elders, and presented them to the Bishop to be ordained Elders: Clarence G. Cook, Claude M. Fawns, C. E. Dunlap, E. E. Franklin, G. A. P. Jewell, Clyde S. Miller, Bertrand D. Nysewander, Julius Pfeiffer, Ralph C. Plank, James H. Royer, Phillips B. Smith, George A. Snider, J. B. Sparling, J. F. Stephenson, John M. Stewart, and George S. Thomas. Each candidate had selected one of his friends to assist in his ordination, in addition to the assistance of the District Superintendents. The wives of the candidates, and members of the immediate families, were also called to the chancel at the time of the ordination. The Bishop, with the assistance of the District Superintendents and the selected friends, ordained them Elders.

The ordination service is one of the most important and impressive services in our church. The class of Elders ordained at this session of the Annual Conference was one of the largest ever ordained in this Conference. There was a large audience present which packed every available part of the auditorium and adjacent rooms. Many who were present had waited for hours to witness this service. After the Bishop led in prayer, the service was closed by singing the Doxology.

Presiding Bishop.

FIFTH DAY.

Monday, April 10, 1922.

Pursuant to the adjournment, the Conference met in Executive Session in the Congregational Church, Elkhart, Indiana. At 8.40 A. M., Bishop Leete took the chair and called the Conference to order. The hymn,

"A charge to keep I have,"

was sung, and Bishop Leete offered prayer.

The Bishop then stated that the purpose of the Executive Session was to consider some educational matters that had been brought to the attention of the Conference at the last session.

W. B. Freeland, for the Committee that had been appointed at the last session of the Conference to consider the overtures from Taylor University, relative to the relationship of the two bodies, then read the report of the committee. On motion, the report was ordered printed in the Minutes. See reports.

Bishop Leete then at some little length considered the educational possiblities relative to our Conference and what might be accomplished. W. W. Martin then moved, that we provide a commission with authority to act for the Conference in educational matters in case of any emergency. Said commission to consist of the Resident Bishop, the District Superintendents, and five (5) members from each district. Motion carried. By common consent the commission was given authority to call to its assistance additional members, if it were deemed necessary.

In answer to a question raised by R. J. Wade, as to whether the commission would have authority to consider propositions coming from outside the territory of the Conference, the commission was given that authority.

On motion, the Cabinet was requested to appoint this commission.

On motion of Somerville Light, the trustees of an abandoned piece of church property at Raysville, were authorized to sell it and apply the proceeds where they thought best.

On motion of C. H. Smith, the Executive Session adjourned.

It was further ordered that one hundred dollars be added to the expense account of printing the Minutes to be given the Secretary of the Conference as part remuneration for his services as Secretary.

On motion of Sherman Powell, each Conference Visitor was ordered to make report to the committee representing the institution he was elected to visit.

Reconsideration.—On motion of M. S. Marble, the report of the Committee on Education was reconsidered. The report of the committee being before us, it was requested that hereafter the Committee on Education specify the time when the Visitor should take up his work and for what length of time he was appointed. On motion of M. S. Marble, it was ordered that the term of M. O. Lester, as Visitor to DePauw University, should begin September 1, 1922, and that it should continue for a period of three years, and that he was to succeed W. B. Freeland, whose term expires September 1, 1922. The Secretary of the Conference was requested to edit the report in conformity with this action. The report was then adopted.

Bishop in Chair.—Bishop Leete took the chair at this time, and announced the transfer of W. B. Morgan, who had been re-admitted to this Conference, to the St. Louis Conference.

Journal.—The Journal of Saturday's session was approved without reading.

The Secretary was authorized to edit all reports.

Fifth Question Resumed.—The Fifth Question, "Who are Received on Trial?" was resumed.

Lester L. C. Wisner was reported on in his studies by the Registrar, recommended by the Committee on Ministerial Qualifications, represented by his District Superintendent, and received on Trial in the Studies of the First Year.

W. W. Martin, for the Cabinet, read the names of the members of the Area Council, who, on motion, were elected.

The Treasurer and Statistician made reports of totals and of decreases and increases. These reports were accepted and ordered printed in the Minutes.

The Secretary asked permission to change his official record to correspond to the facts in the case of P. B. Leach, thus recording him in the Studies of the Third Year. Request was granted.

On motion of W. W. Martin, W. B. Freeland was re-elected trustee of the Wesley Foundation at Indiana State University.

The Bishop announced hymn 383,

"Onward, Christian Soldiers,"

three stanzas of which were sung. He addressed the Conference, reviewing the work of the Conference and of the Cabinet during this session.

The Bishop then read the appointments, and offered a fervent prayer for the divine blessing on the pastors and churches during the coming year. The long meter doxology was sung, the Benediction was pronounced by C. U. Wade, and the North Indiana Annual Conference stood adjourned without day.

(X) Reports.

(a) DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS.

FORT WAYNE DISTRICT

W. W. Martin, District Superintendent.

Bishop Leete and Brethren:

We record our deep appreciation of the kind Providence which has been the source of inspiration and strength for the year just closing. The co-operation of pastors and laymen has made possible another year of victory. Many of our people have struggled against adverse circumstances. Many have suffered under the hand of affliction. Many of our pastors have had sickness in their homes, but these light afflictions have enriched experience and brought us closer to God. Brother J. K. Wyant recently passed through a surgical operation in our Methodist hospital at Fort Wayne. He is on the road to recovery but will not be able to be with us in this Conference session.

W. W. Martin

Several charges have had changes of pastors within the year. Immediately after Conference last spring, Scipio, on the Woodburn charge, asked to be made a station. This was done and the pastor assigned to Woodburn became pastor of Scipio. L. E. Dunbar was appointed as supply pastor at Woodburn, but was relieved of the charge in January, and Chas. A. Fisher appointed in his place. Brother F. M. Hall asked to be permitted to attend school and V. E. Huneryager was brought from Stroh to Kingsland. The Logansport district gave the Macedonian cry, and on the advice and authority of Bishop Leete, H. A. Clugston was moved from Spencerville to Frankton. A. F. Uphoff was moved from Hamilton to Spencerville. Later J. J. Fischer was appointed to Hamilton. L. W. Stone was excused from Ashley that he might take his seminary work in Boston, and Glen Bryan was secured to supply Ashley. Only a short time since L. E. Rees was appointed to the Stroh charge as supply pastor. Brother Huneryager declined further service on the Kingsland charge and L. L. C. Wisner has been closing up the work of the year. Only unusual circumstances warrant such changes within the year.

Property Interests have been cared for. Arcola, with a growing Sunday school, found it necessary to enlarge their quarters and an addition was made to their church. It was dedicated on November 27 by Dr. J. W. Potter. On the same day the District Superintendent dedicated our new church at Pleasant Mills. The plans were made, and the work directed by the pastor, and most of the time till the day of dedication he worked on this building. The eight thousand dollars expended in this enterprise has provided an up-to-date edifice with all the appointments necessary for modern church in a rural community. On the 24th of July, the District Superintendent read the ritual for the laying of the corner-stone for the new Trinity Church in Ft. Wayne. In a time when many minds were pessimistic this congregation, with a fine spirit of optimism, launched this enterprise. This church is nearing completion. It was my privilege to preach the first sermon in this new structure on a recent Sunday evening. Services are being held in the gymnasium. When completed it will be the best equipped of any Methodist church in Ft. Wayne. It will have all the appointments of a modern city church. The bid for the work was $120,000. However, the trustees placed the matter of construction in the hands of the pastor, M. C. Wright, and when completed the building will cost about $65,000, once more giving proof that preachers know other things as well as theology. Auburn has purchased property adjoining the church building and will build a modern home for their pastor. Union chapel, on the Hartford and Union charge, has money raised and plans rebuilding as soon as weather conditions permit. Decatur, Auburn, and Garrett have redecorated their churches, and extensive additional repairs were made on the Garret church at a total cost of about $10,000. Simpson and St. Paul churches have reduced their indebtedness materially.

We are still interested in the Centenary. Considerable shock was felt by some last year when the treasurer's report was read. For the full two years of the Centenary to May 31, 1921, the North Indiana Conference paid 97 per cent of amount due, but on her apportionment this Conference paid 99.79 per cent. While we were doing this the Northwest Conference paid 76 per cent of its apportionment, and the Indiana Conference paid 61 per cent of apportionment, and these two Conferences did not fall far below the average of the church. Because many had paid pledges for the full five years in advance it should have been expected that our first year would exceed the second year, but a Conference that has paid in the first two full years 99.79 per cent of its apportionment is not to be reproached for its achievement. And Ft. Wayne District seeks to do its full share. On the sheets that have been sent out giving the showing for the first twenty-three months, the following charges are credited with largest per cent payments of full claim: Freemont, 140%; Angola, 137%; First Church, Bluffton, 133%. However, many have felt that the per cent of payment on apportionment should obtain rather than the per cent on subscription, many charges pushing their subscriptions beyond the apportioment that any shrinkage might be thus cared for. If this rule obtained the charges who had paid for the first twenty-three months would rank as follows, taking only such charges as have paid 100% of apportionment: Trinity, Ft. Wayne, 255%; First Church, Bluffton, 162%; Auburn, 147%; Fremont, 140%; Angola and Decatur, each 137%; First Church Ft. Wayne and Coesse, each 123%; Ashley, 118%; Garret and York Ct., 117%; New Haven, 112%; Harlan, 110% Monroe, 108%; Hoagland, 104%; and Arcola, 101%.

A few of our rural churches will have some decrease in payments for the Centenary this year. A number of our churches will advance over the payment of last year. The latest figures, of course, are not available, and will not be until the reports are in the hands of the treasurer. We observed the plan for the Christmas offering in our district, and many charges observed a tithing week, with the result that about $2,000 extra money was obtained in this way.

The regularly recognized organizations are active in this district. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and the Woman's Home Missionary Society are doing successful work, and wherever either exist a wholesome influence is felt in the securing of our Centenary funds. The Epworth League is flourishing. Our Booth Festival, on Labor Day of last autumn, brought about two thousand people together, and the offerings in cash and provision netted our Methodist hospital in Ft. Wayne nearly $3,000. At the District Convention, last June, our young people agreed to support the Rev. Scott P. Hauser as Epworth League Secretary for South America providing $1,800 a year for this purpose. He will work under the direction of Bishop Oldham. Rev. A. P. Young, a local preacher of the Wayne Street Church, Ft. Wayne, and formerly fourth vice-president of the district, sailed last autumn for India and will teach in one of our mission schools there.

Some very successful evangelistic services have been held. On the Ashley charge both churches have had awakenings and Brother Bryan will report an increase of about 25% in church membership. He was assisted at Ashley by Brother E. E. Trippeer. At First Church, Auburn, after several weeks of heroic effort, the pastor, Brother E. E. Trippeer, was rewarded in seeing an old-fashioned revival, and 108 people united with the church. At Bluffton, Evangelist Johnston assisted the pastor, Chas. H. Smith, and 118 people professed conversion. Simpson Church, Ft. Wayne, has probably had the best meeting this year that has been held within the five-year pastorate of U. S. A. Bridge, he being assisted in this meeting by Emory Dunbar, of Hartford City. Hamilton, which has been deemed a difficult field, has had a visitation of power, and J. J. Fischer, who has been there only three months has had above sixty conversions. Excellent revivals have been held by the pastors on the following charges: Coesse, Decatur Circuit, Fiat, Hudson, Huntertown, Leo, Orland, Pleasant Mills, Poneto, and Ray. The peculiar circumstances in the Geneva meeting lead me to refer to it more particularly. The pastor of the Geneva Circuit, Brother Glendenning, began his meeting at Ceylon, about one mile north of Geneva. People came from Geneva to the meeting—among these, the pastor, J. W. Reynolds. The crowds taxed the capacity of the church. Brother Reynolds invited them to move the meeting to Geneva. This was done. Brother Glendenning, with but little training from the schools, but endowed with heavenly virtues, continued to preach, and the pastor, a college and seminary man, sat under his preaching, and did personal work in the congregation and the community, and 140 people professed faith in Jesus Christ. Under Brother Glendenning's preaching this year 232 people have professed conversion. After all "Paul may plant and Apollos water, but the increase is of God."

Our district this year will move in the direction of a half million Methodists in Indiana. We ought to move more rapidly.

Four years ago we came into possession of the building and began the operation of our Methodist Hospital in Ft. Wayne. From the beginning I have been chairman of the local committee. After a year of successful operation some embarrassments arose over the matter of administration, and for a great while some of us were greatly perplexed. Last August matters came to a crisis. We called our committee together. Rather drastic treatment was given the diseased patient. Without going into details I am glad to report that the patient survived, and we think has grown well. Our institution is now liberally patronized by the public and the surgeons and physicians. In one month sixty-one different physicians have practiced in the institution. Our outlook is very good. We shall be glad for the co-operation of the pastors in securing young women for our nurses' training school. In all these readjustments Dr. Steele, the superintendent, has given the heartiest co-operation; and Dr. Tillotson, president of the hospital board at Indianapolis, has given very great assistance.

In October we moved into the district parsonage, which the district has provided as the permanent headquarters in the city of Ft. Wayne.

Many and varied responsibilities have fallen to our lot. Sometimes we have hesitated, but more to make sure of the will of God. We acknowledge his leadership and pledge our fidelity to his every purpose.

GOSHEN DISTRICT.

A. G. Neal, District Superintendent.

Bishop Leete and Brothers:

Goshen District has enjoyed fine district meetings this year. Every program has been carried out in full, and at some meetings every pastor has been present.

The pastors and district stewards met at Goshen. The Woman's Home Missionary Society met at Mishawaka. The Epworth League Convention was held at Albion. The Epworth League Institute, at Wawasee, was attended by an unusual number of the pastors and young people. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society met at La Grange. Settlement Day, at New Paris, was a decided success. And the District Conference at Mishawaka was a fine culmination for the year's work.

Very generous assistance was given in all these meetings by the Area secretary and representatives of the various benevolent boards of the church.

Improvements and New Buildings.—Scott, on the Howe charge, entirely rebuilt their church. Two special days were observed. The laying of the corner-stone brought out a fine audience. Dinner was served at the schoolhouse and Dr. R. J. Wade made the address. At the dedication a very memorable service was held and Bishop Leete was the preacher for the day.

Topeka remodeled and beautified their church, and at a "home-coming," S. B. Stockey brought words of good cheer.

Albion made an entirely different building of their church. Improvements that greatly commend pastor and people.

Wakarusa completed a basement that gives opportunity for greatly increased Sunday-school activities.

New lighting plants have been installed and many other helpful improvements made in many places.

The new Community House, at Kendallvile, justifies the w'sdom of those who saw great possibilities. They complete a year of fine work. Good programs, helpful social activities, and co-ordinated church interests are some fruits of the year's work. The financial obligations met have exceeded all expectations. The future for our church at Kendallville never was so encouraging.

A. G. Neal

Trinity, Elkhart, did everything necessary to be done to be prepared for the entertainment of the Annual Conference.

Etna Green has completed a fine, new parsonage near the church and now, with their excellent church building, this charge faces great possibilities for the future.

Under heroic leadership Warsaw paid the last dollar of indebtedness on the splendid new church building. Bishop Leete preached the sermon and, then, amidst great rejoicing, the last notes were burned.

Several contemplated improvements are now assured within the district for the coming year.

The new church at Milford hopes for an early dedication and will entertain the Settlement Day in December.

The parsonages of St. Paul's, Elkhart, South Milford, Valentine, and Albion were gladdened by the arrival of baby boys.

Some of our parsonage homes have had sickness; and to some has come abiding loss. Two of our honored retired ministers have journeyed into the presence of the King.

Rev. E. F. Hasty, after many years of service extending from 1859, came to the end of life's journey. Within the past year he sent his annual payments for missions. He spent much time in prayer for the advancement of the Kingdom.

Rev. J. M. Haines began his ministry in 1887. After these years of active service he located in Warsaw. While visiting his daughter in Ohio he fell on sleep, and the earthly pilgrimage ended.

After years of widowhood Mrs. H. M. Lamport rejoined the dear ones gone before. The older members of the Conference will recall the tragic death of her husband who thirty years ago was killed by a train at Osceola on the very eve of our Conference at Anderson.

One of the most pathetic happenings of the year was the sickness and then the unexpected translation of Mrs. W. E. Pittenger. As wife and mother she presided in her parsonage home as the Elect Lady of Inspiration's view. When the end of the journey was reached, unafraid and triumphant she joined the unnumbered multitude. Her devoted husband and the little boys have the heartfelt sympathy of all friends, and kindly, devout helpfulness from the good people of St. Paul.

Laymen's Activities.—A very faithful company of laymen has supported every phase of the year's work.

In several places gospel teams and men's choruses have been organized and have given fine help. Group meetings with banquets and programs have given great inspiration.

The District Council was organized and every department of the work has been advanced. The first anniversary will be celebrated June 6 at Nappanee.

Revivals.—Almost every charge was visited by revival influences. About twelve hundred conversions and reclamations were reported by the faithful, devoted pastors. After all losses by deaths and removals, etc., the net increase is more than six hundred. Some padded records had to be straightened or the number would have been much larger.

Several pastors held their own services and were greatly honored by the Spirit's presence and power. Evangelistic help of high order was rendered in some places by evangelists Earle Naftzger, Richer Brothers, DeWitt Johnston, Archie Daily, Dr. Champion, the Hollitt Sisters, and others—including pastors who exchanged work with district men.

Some charges passed the goal for the "Advocates." And the list for the district has been increased.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society made a good advance; and in this year has assumed the salary for a special missionary, Mercedes Nunez, of the George O. Robinson Orphanage, Porto Rico.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society is more than a thousand dollars in advance of last year. And Goshen District was the first district in Northwestern Branch to reach the million member quota.

The Ladies' Aid Societies have gathered money and wisely helped every phase of the work.

New Leagues and new Junior Leagues add to the certainty of good training for the future.

Men's organizations show stalwart strength.

Our Sunday schools never before manifested such interest in attendance and study.

Several charges paid the Centenary in full up to April. Among these were Warsaw, Wawaka, Osceola, Milford, Ligonier, and Inwood.

We face the new year with brave hearts and we are determined, pastors and laymen, that at our hands the Kingdom's interests shall not suffer. The heroic Christ of the Cross and of Easter shall have our full allegiance. With surrendered, obedient life and will we say for another year, "Lead on, O King Eternal."

LOGANSPORT DISTRICT.

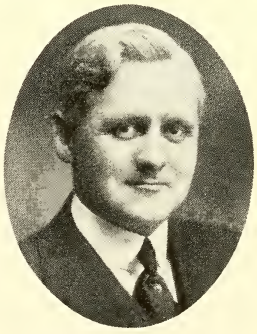
Freeland A. Hall, District Superintendent.

Dear Bishop, Fathers, and Brethren:

I want to begin this report with an acknowledgement of thanks to Almighty God for his infinite goodness to the pastors and superintendent of Logansport District; that every man has been able to keep a reasonable degree of health, and notwithstanding changeable weather, and at times impassable roads, has continued faithfully at the task. Not all of the appointments as made last Annual Conference have continued to the end of the year. There have been eight changes.

Changes in Appointments.—On October 9, Rev. John H. Collier, a supply preacher on Macy Circuit, asked to be relieved of his appointment that he might attend Northwestern University. John O. Mabuse, a member of the Missouri Conference was secured, and has filled out the year acceptably to the churches of the charge.

By request of the two churches of the Santa Fe charge the circuit was divided early in the Conference year. Rev. E. C. Fisher was released by Dr. Beatty and has served Santa Fe with a profitable pastorate for the sixth year. Rev George Wohlschegal served McGrawsville until August 21; since that time Rev. A. R. Sanks, one of our capable Conference men, has served the church.



F. A. Hall

In September, Rev. A. G. Cox, who had been appointed as a supply preacher for Richland Chapel, wrote the district superintendent asking to be released from his appointment. Rev. J. W. Trout, a local preacher, was secured to fill out the year. He has done good work and the church would welcome his return.

In October, Rev. Chamness asked to be released from the Cicero charge, and Rev. Julius Pfeiffer, having completed his work in school, was appointed by the bishop to the charge. He is carrying out the program of the church, and his return to the charge will be welcomed.

In early September Rev. H. A. Broadwell was transferred to the Indiana Conference, and Rev. E. H. Taylor was moved from Frankton to Bunker Hill. He says he is the oldest man in the effective relation in our Annual Conference. If years always bring such enthusiastic work, it will be good to grow old.

The Frankton church, losing such an efficient and enthusiastic leader, was not easily satisfied in securing a new pastor. They finally asked for Rev. H. A. Clugston, of Spencerville. Both pastor and people are happy in their new relation and his return is much desired.

The counsel of Bishop Leete concerning this appointment proved most valuable.

Recent changes in Conference appointments touched the Logansport District. Rev. John Edwards was moved from Market Street, Logansport, to New Castle.

The people of Market Street were much disheartened at losing their pastor, but are now perfectly happy. Rev. J. Ira Jones, of Sheridan, by the request of Market Street and the concurrent action of the bishop, was released from the Sheridan church and appointed to Market Street. Rev. Jones did an outstanding service in the Sheridan church. In the face of a very large church debt the Centenary did not suffer.

The church at Sheridan was very much disappointed that their pastor was removed in the closing days of the Conference year. They, however, acquiesced in a true Methodist spirit.

The church having had W. E. McPheeters as their pastor, and being well acquainted with C. A. McPheeters, his brother, made unanimous request that he be appointed as their pastor.

Weddings.—Three times during the Conference year wedding bells have been ringing for the pastors of Logansport District.

In the month of June, Rev. Charles Thornburg, our pastor at Center, returned to Peru and selected one of the choice young women of that church for a bride. Miss Mable Miller became Mrs. Charles Thornburg, and all the people of Center charge are saying, "She is an ideal minister's wife."

In August, Rev John Collier, our Macy Circuit pastor, married Miss Lucile Dunlap, charming singer of Rev. C. E. Dunlap's home. They are in school in Chicago making further preparation for their work in the ministry.

Christmas Day, Rev. Clifton Pond, Scircleville pastor, married the daughter of Rev. C. A. Cloud. They are happily domiciled in the Scircleville parsonage.

Deaths.—Father Time with his keen sickle has been visiting our preacher's homes.

While the summer days were yet with us, Rev. S. C. Miller, familiarly known to our preachers as Uncle Sam, with shouts of triumph went into the Eternal City.

In September, Rev. C. E. Disbro, our oldest retired minister, for sixty-three years a member of our Conference, was bereaved in the loss of his daughter Florence. Brother Disbro is well and sometimes preaches or assists at funerals.

On the first of March, Rev. A. S. Wooton, one of the best-known, best-loved, and highly respected men of our Conference, passed to his eternal reward.

Death has not been confined to those of older years. The holiday visit of Rev. and Mrs. Clugston to the home of Dr. and Mrs. Martin was saddened by the loss of their baby boy. On December 29, Herbert Martin Clugston went to join the angel band.

Centenary and Apportioned Benevolences.—It is with a sting of pain that I am not able to report advance in payment of the Centenary and Disciplinary Benevolences. Some have said, "The Lord's work is too important to allow it to wait," and have borrowed money to pay the Centenary claims. We thank God for men whose vision sees the importance of the Kingdom.

More of our people are practicing tithing than ever before. The tithing church will pay the Centenary and take us into a benevolent program of advance that will be larger that the Centenary.

Conference Benevolences.—Pastors' reports indicate that there will be $1,252 paid for the Home for the Aged, $1,024 for sustentation, and $1,512 for Methodist hospital. This will be in addition to the fine offering of canned fruit, linen, and delicacies given at the time of the Booth Festival.

Women's Organizations.—The women of our churches have all been busy in their labor of love for the Master's kingdom.

The Sheridan Ladies' Aid Society led the district in amount of money raised, the amount being $2,200. Both the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and Woman's Home Missionary Society will report an advance in the amount of gifts.

Pastoral Labor.—The pastors report 33,356 pastoral visits, 272 marriages, 507 funerals, and 719 persons baptized.

By a peculiar coincident the number of conversions and number of "Advocate" subscribers is exactly the same, 1,404.

Church Membership.—The district will report a gain in church membership of four hundred. Thirty charges report a gain of 667, and twelve charges report a loss of 267. The charges reporting the largest gain are Tipton, 84; Bunker Hill, 66; Grace Church, 88; Broadway, 62; Main Street, 39; Miami, 35; Market Street, 33; Boxely, 27; West Middleton, 25; Gilead, 24; Converse, 20. Other charges reporting a net gain are: Alto, Arcadia, Center, Cicero, Forest, Frankton, Goldsmith, Hillisburg, Kempton, Beamer, Wheatland Street, Mexico, New Waverly, Peoria, Richland, Sharpsville, Sheridan, Walton, and Windfall.

Pastor's Salaries.—The following places report an advance in pastors' salaries: Boxely, Bunker Hill, Converse, Elwood, Kempton, Beamer, Main Street, Broadway, Mexico, Tipton, and Walton.

Building and Improvement.—Twenty-one thousand, seven hundred and twenty-seven dollars have been paid during the year on the improvement of church property.

At Onward, on the New Waverly charge, a new church building is in process of construction. Three thousand dollars have been paid on this enterprise that will cost, when completed, $10,000.

Grace Church, Kokomo, has paid $5,200 for refrescoing and relighting the church. It is now a temple of beauty, well appointed in every respect, the largest auditorium in the Conference, and ready to entertain the next session of the Annual Conference.

Peru has purchased the old Methodist church just south of her church and has refitted it for Sunday-school purposes. With added room, the Sunday school increased in attendance over fifty for the past quarter. The cost of this needed improvement to date is $2,450.

Main Street has made extensive repair in the church basement at cost of $1,272. Arcadia, Boxely, Converse, Elwood, Forest, Hillisburg, Hobbs and Aroma, Beamer, Broadway, Wheatland Street, Gilead, Richland, and Walton have made improvements of four hundred to one thousand dollars.

Other churches reporting a hundred dollars and over are: Anoka, Bunker Hill, Cicero, Denver, Kempton, Market Street, Peoria, Tipton, and West Middleton.

Sheridan and Wheatland Street report payment on old debts.

Sheridan has paid $3,633 on her church debt, and Wheatland Street has wiped out a debt of $1,000 that had stood against the church for ten years. This is the first step in a forward-moving program for the Wheatland church that will result in the building of a new church.

Other churches that report payments on church debts are, Anoka, Elwood, Frankton, Galveston, Grace Church, Peoria, and Scircleville.

District Meetings.—The first meeting of the year was our district preachers' and stewards' meeting with all our pastors and the majority of the stewards present. The program was provided by the men of the district, with the exception of a strong address given by Maurice Barrett, of Upland. Before adjourning the meeting adopted a district program including a district calendar and goals.

The churches that have followed the lead and have adopted program with certain definite goals have shown a lively interest in attaining the goals.

We believe every church should have a goal including at least a good percentage of advance in church membership, an increase in average attendance at the Sunday school, and an advance action in benevolent activity including the Centenary on a 100 per cent basis.

Settlement Day.—Settlement Day was one of the largest attended and most inspirational meetings of the year. The program was good throughout. Bishop Leete favored us with his presence and the people came in large numbers to hear his message. They were not disappointed. The people of Logansport District are well pleased with our bishop and are looking with much favor on his wise leadership.

Over two hundred pastors and laymen were seated at the tables in Grace Church basement for the noon-day meal. Many were turned away for lack of room.

District Conference.—The district Conference was held in Sheridan, the extreme southwestern part of the district, being accessible only by railway route extending beyond the bounds of the district. Roads were impassable. There was, however, a good attendance of local people.

All the pastors except those detained by sickness were present.

The program was of large interest and profit.

Dr. E. D. Kohlstedt, J. Z. Moore, Secretary Bogue, and Dr. U. G. Leazenby were outside speakers. Each speaker brought a message of deep interest and inspiration to the Conference.

Epworth League.—The district Epworth League Convention was held at Market Street, Logansport. Much enthusiasm was manifested among our splendid young people.

Wawasee Institute has meant much to the Epworth Leagues of this district.

Fall Conventions.—The sub-district missionary conventions held in early October were better organized and more largely attended than any in the last three years. The Tipton group led in attendance and the Peru group led in collections. There was a total present during the week of 22,735. The Centenary office furnished us with three strong speakers. Dr. J. R. Denyes, of Malaysia; and Drs. E. H. Richards and W. L. Rowe, of Africa. We will never complain if the Centenary office will provide us with men with such soul-inspiring and instructive messages.

But, though the speakers were the best we have had in years, they were not the largest contributors to the success of our sub-district missionary rallies. Every pastor was a helper, and J. Ira Jones, H. R. Carson, P. E. Greenwalt, W. E. Loveless, Frank P. Morris, E. C. Fisher, John B. Sparling, Leroy Myers, and Ben Kendall were real masters and proved themselves to be most excellent leaders throughout the conventions.

Bishop, whatever work you may see in Logansport District that is worthy of commendation, permit me to say I think much of the credit should be to these faithful sub-district leaders. And for every pastor, I am glad to say every man of the district works in the team.

Every pastor is working that his sub-district may be a winner.

As a district we are working that Logansport shall be just as near first as any in the Conference, and that our Conference shall be second to none in the State; and, above all, that our great church shall do her full share in following a sacrificing Christ with a whole-hearted, devoted, and unselfish service until the white flag of Jesus our King shall float in majestic splendor over every flag of the earth.

We are sure we cannot do this splendid work without a close touch with the Christ that was willing to suffer, for the accomplishments of a mighty program.

That we may help to work out his desire for a redeemed humanity we are glad, Bishop Leete, to work under your direction in articulating our Indiana church to the task of extending our Methodist program of evangelism and education until all the people of the world shall know him whom we love to accord the great Shepherd and Bishop of our souls.

MUNCIE DISTRICT.

James A. Beatty, District Superintendent.

Bishop Leete and Brethren:

I am happy to present to you in my sixth annual report of Muncie District a brief summary of the doings in the last twelve months. Some notable achievements have gone into history. Forty-two faithful pastors, with heroism and unflagging devotion, allied with the strong arm of the loyal laity, will present encouraging and inspiring reports. Fourteen retired ministers, full of wisdom and good counsel and thirty-seven local preachers have made a large contribution toward the accomplishments of the year.

In the final adjustments of appointments every charge had a pastor and the unusual occurred. We had gone up into the fourth quarter without a break. We were already beginning to hope for a year's record unbroken. But how we were shocked and our hopes blasted when on January 9, Brother Bert E. Jones, after a brave fight of nine days, succumbed to that most dreaded disease, double pneumonia. Like the Apostle Paul, he lived a sacrificial life and claimed his crown of righteousness.

Death Toll.—Death has laid heavy toll on the district this year. First we were stunned by the news coming over the wires announcing the death of Mrs. Edith Jackson Fisher, wife of Bishop Fred B. Fisher. She cast anchor on the other shore from Darjeeling, India, the fifth of last June. We concede the claim of the general church to this beautiful character who gave her life in a sacrificial way for India. But Muncie is the home town, and High Street Church the home church, of both these servants of the King. August 13 the good Father let down one of his twenty thousand chariots and invited Sister Mary Walker, wife of Dr. W. F. Walker, of Indianapolis, to step in. She and Dr. Walker spent thirty years in China, where they received a rich harvest of souls. She was ready and heaven is now enriched. A few days later the call was made at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Palmer, of Lapel, and their youngest son, Earl, was chosen. He was a bright, promising young man. The next call was likewise unexpected. It was the beautiful, gentle, charming Mrs. Josephine Bentley, wife of Dr. L. C. Bentley, of First Church, Anderson. The going out was so Christlike, I would not spoil it with attempted description. The next call came to my friend and Conference classmate, Rev. Eli Davis, of Albany. He answered from] our Methodist hospital in Indianapolis, in the early morning of March 11. He died in the triumph of the gospel he loved to preach. The next one our dear Father chose was Sister Elizabeth Rogers, of Pendleton, March 15. A character most beautiful, perfectly loyal to every interest of the Kingdom, ripe for heaven, just waiting for the Coronation Day to arrive.

Building and Improvements.—Early in the Conference year plans were made by the trustees at Gaston to build a new parsonage. The old one, unfit for use, was sold and moved off the lot, and a beautiful new house, with all modern equipments, was erected at a cost of $5,600. It would be a credit to any good city church. Brother and Sister Megenity, along with their good people, planned it wisely and are now happily housed in one of the most beautiful preacher's homes in the district.

We have dedicated five new churches this Conference year, an unusual number even in times of financial prosperity. Noble Street, Anderson, was the first on the calendar, having the building well started last year. It is architecturally and artistically beautiful. Its appointments are complete for both Sunday school and church. It is located in a fine residence district and a fine congregation and Sunday school are already gathered, and they are continuing to gather, having received over thirty families in the last few months and increased their membership by nearly one hundred. The cost of the church and parsonage was $56,000. Pastor E. J. Wickersham and his splendid board of trustees are to be commended for their courage, wisdom, skill, endurance, and faith.

Avondale, Muncie, dedicated their new church December 4. It is a marvel of cheapness, valued at $50,000. It looks as if it might have cost $60,000. This was due to the experience and skill of the pastor, Dr. J. Walter Gibson, and Brother John F. Hutchings, the contractor and member of the board of trustees. The material from the Mt. Tabor church probably saved them $5,000. I would also make prominent mention of the large amount of work donated by this active membership. This church has a fine auditorium with deep galleries on two sides and side extensions with galleries. There are eight other rooms, including a fine, large basement and gymnasium with shower bath.

I acknowledge with gratitude the valuable evangelistic and financial help of Dr. D. E. Kendall, of Denver, Colorado, in the employ of the Centenary in these two churches.

The following Sunday, December 11, we dedicated the Ingalls church. This was a case to either put up or shut up. They chose the wise course and built a splendid church costing $10,000. This was followed by a glorious revival, and Ingalls is now on the map to stay. It makes possible a two-point charge with living salary. This is the first charge for Rev. O. A. Knox, the pastor, and he has proven his ability to build and evangelize.

January 8, we were called on to dedicate the Union Church on the Summitville Circuit. The old church was moved to a new location, placed on a concrete foundation, where it was rebuilt with two additional rooms and a fine basement with provisions for social features, their growing Sunday-school and church services. Rev. J. W. Rose is the popular pastor.

Just a year and one month from the time the Whiteley Church burned, February 5, we dedicated the new one built on the old foundation with a little enlargement. A beautiful stucco church with two additional rooms is the monument to this faithful congregation and Rev. Mont C. Oliver, their pastor. The beauty and glory of this house surpasses that of the former. The cost was $10,000, and this generous congregation, with the help of their many friends in the city, provided for all indebtedness.

Indiana Avenue, Anderson, remodeled their church by enlarging it and installing a basement with kitchen and dining-room, which provides a place for social features and doubles their capacity for their enlarging Sunday school. The cost was $5,247.

Other churches spending a thousand dollars or more are as follows: Alexandria, a rebuilt parsonage, made modern hardwood floors, built-in kitchen, new furnace, cost $1,500. De Soto, remodeled and revamped the Mt. Pleasant church, $1,345. Muncie, Madison Street, remodeled parsonage, redecorated, new furnace, completely modernized, cost $1.000. Shideler rebuilt their parsonage at a cost of $1,000. Twenty other charges made improvements, spending smaller amounts. The total for the district is $125,433.

Ministerial Support.—The increase in ministerial support is worthy of our notice. The churches to-day are taking care of the ministry in a better way, making it possible for the ministry to take better care of the churches. Six years ago the district paid for full ministerial support $52,638. This year the total should be $85,885, making and increase of $33,247, a 60 per cent increase.

Centenary.—The value of the Centenary movement to the Methodist Episcopal Church is clearly in evidence. In 1916, the total of all benevolences in Muncie District was $25,272. In 1921, five years later, the total for the same cause was $90,546, an increase of $64,274, which is 254 per cent. Two years before the Centenary was put on Muncie District was an all-star district, every charge meeting its full apportionment. The record shows the first two years of the Centenary the district met 100 per cent of its subscriptions. Up to this time reports are too indefinite to report definite figures. We are hoping, for the Kingdom's sake, we may surpass last year's record. We have made an honest effort to have it so.

There has gone out from our area office, by our wide-awake, efficient Area secretary, Rev. Jesse Bogue, to all the pastors, loads of the best inspirational information that could be secured. Brother Bogue has given us further help by addressing nearly all our district meetings and visiting some of the local churches. Also many letters of advice and up-to-date reports from the Commission on Conservation and Advance, and messages of wisdom and good counsel from our esteemed Bishop Leete. I am pleased to express a debt of gratitude for the efficient help of our district missionary secretary, Rev. E. M. Dunbar, and our district stewardship secretary, Dr. L. C. Bentley, and each group chairman. We have been fired again and again with the thrilling messages of our missionaries, fresh from the field, and then bringing the needs of the field and its development before our eyes with the stereopticon. It has been the aim of the district to carry the general program of the church down to the local church. We have earnestly advised the educational program before the every-member canvas is made. We will never come to our full strength until that program is put on as the Discipline prescribes. We believe when our people are properly educated and informed as to the needs of the church they will meet those needs.

District Meetings.—We have had the usual district meetings, pastors' and stewards', Centenary-Evangelistic campaign, Settlement Day, Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary and Epworth League conventions, and district Conferences. The programs were of high grade and cumulative in their interest and results, climaxing in the district Conference. This Conference licensed eleven people to preach the gospel. Some of these young people are going as missionaries, others into active ministry in this country.

Preachers' Aid Society Campaign.—The Preachers' Aid Society Campaign was just getting started when we were obliged, on account of financial depression, to call the men from the field. Immediately after Conference the campaign will be renewed. Dr. R. A. Morrison, general secretary, is a real general in this important campaign and Muncie District expects to meet her quota.

Departmental Societies.—There has been a fine advance this year in all the organizations managed by the women. Quite a number of new auxiliaries have been organized in both the Home and Foreign Missionary Societies. The Home Society reports $4,312, and the Foreign $12,800. The Ladies' Aid Societies report the greatest activity and largest results I have ever recorded, $16,597, making a total of $33,710. The women have been so accustomed to doing business on a small capital that they have not taken notice of any business depression. Instead of a slump these societies have gone forward.

This has been a great year in Sunday-school work. This department of our work seems to be advancing more rapidly than any other. While I am glad to see this advance I am sure it will be a sad day for any church when our children and young people, middle aged or older, teachers or officers, make the Sunday school a substitute for Sunday morning church hour.

The Epworth Leagues are taking on new life by organizing new chapters, holding conventions and sub-district rallies and institutes, organizing mission study classes and being loyal to their devotional meetings.

Evangelism and Membership.—The revival spirit has been quite general over the district, continuing from last year and a spiritual awakening has prevailed in most of the charges. The true mission of the church, with its most vital interests has been emphasized. Intellect, activity, courage, and divine unction has been combined with faith and heroic endeavor to purify the church and attract men to Jesus Christ.

It is interesting to tabulate results when results are large. Between sixteen and seventeen hundred have been converted. There have been received into the church 1,360, giving us a net gain of 1,024, putting us ahead more that 2,000 the last two years.

Pastors.—I would speak a brief word about the faithful pastor. I have taken no time in this report to give him personal mention. He is the key man to success in every charge. He can either make it or break it. My admiration has been challenged again and again by the fine team work in the district by these devoted servants of God. I wish I could say all that is in my heart to say about every one of them. Most of them, with sweaty brain and depleted nerve force, have toiled early and late in the vineyard to reach the goals set for them. Think of the succession of campaigns in the past year: building campaign, Centenary campaign, evangelistic campaign, Preachers' Aid Society campaign, campaign for the Near East Relief, and the unemployed and others we cannot mention. The church has never faced so many huge tasks in one year. But these pastor preachers, somewhat battle-scarred, are claiming victory.

A Final Word.—We pause a moment to consider our Supreme Need. We need our membership increased, better equipped church buildings, community houses, colleges, universities, hospitals, orphanages, homes for the aged, gymnasiums with shower-baths, which will provide for recreation and clean, wholesome amusements for our young people. We need the church treasuries better filled, a people who recognize the ownership of God and who will handle God's money as those who expect to give an account as good stewards. But above all these, and before all these, we need good ministerial leadership. When this is secured then all these others will be assured. I doubt if we need to be so much concerned about the lack of numbers in the ministry as about the quality of leadership the church is to have in the coming days. I have a conviction we should lift up the standard of discipleship as our Lord lifted it up. He said, "If any one is coming after me who does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple." It challenges the best that is in us to put Jesus Christ before our own household. Who dares to become an ecclesiastical trimmer and pull down the standard my Lord set. He sets before us a hard business. Let us be brave men and go to it, or forever quit singing, "Where He leads, I'll follow."

RICHMOND DISTRICT

Sommerville Light, District Superintendent.

Bishop Leete and Brothers:

My heartbeat is quickened as I stand on this platform to which I came so many times during a pastorate of five years, and a term of six years on Goshen District. All things considered, this has been the most strenuous year of my entire ministry.

Harder battles to fight, more hours in the saddle, more rides to the midnight hour, more calls both within and without the district for special work—a Voice crying all the way, by day and by night, "Who is sufficient for these things?"

Somerville Light

With few exceptions there has been no serious illness in the parsonage homes. Mrs. French. the wife of our pastor in Kennard, was in the Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis for several weeks. A skillful operation restored her to usual health. Mrs. Ulmer, the wife, and Ruth, the daughter of Brother Ulmer, of the Whitewater charge, have been quite seriously ill but are now greatly improved. Brother W. E. Hamilton, of Lynn, who was in an alarming condition for some time, seems to have made a good recovery.

Marriage.—On the beautiful afternoon of June 29, at the home of the bride's parents in Dublin, the district superintendent, assisted by the pastor, Rev. A. A. Turner, joined in marriage the Rev. Victor E. Stoner, pastor of the Chester charge, and Miss Gladys Cohee. The happy couple immediately set up housekeeping in the cozy parsonage in Chester, where throughout the year they have been happy and very useful to the Kingdom.

Births.—Four of the parsonage homes have been made very happy by the advent of sweet babies. Martha Louise came to brighten the Dunkirk parsonage on November 4. February 21, Thoburn Wesley Anderson made glad the Spiceland parsonage. March 4, E. J. Roahrig took up his residence with Rev. and Mrs. Weber Roahrig. March 28, Mary Frances Power arrived in Winchester and began the itinerant life with her proud father and loving mother.

Deaths.—In my report to the Conference last year in Elwood, I referred to the rapidly failing health of Dr. R. C. Jones, one of the honored retired members of this Conference, residing in Knightstown. What we feared at that time came on apace and in a few weeks this veteran in our ministry was not in the Church Militant, for God called him to his crowning in the Church Triumphant. The funeral services were held in his home in Knightstown, the pastor, Rev Millard Pell in charge. Dr. C. U. Wade, a long-time friend, gave the address. In June, the Rev. Silas L. Cates, who, because of serious break in health, had gone to Denver, Colorado, passed in great peace to the Church Triumphant. The funeral services were conducted in Williamsburg, his boyhood home, by the superintendent of the Richmond District. September 27, the good Christian mother of S. H. Caylor, pastor of the Willow Branch charge, was laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery in Red Key. Rev. B. H. Franklin, her pastor, and the district superintendent spoke words of comfort. March 8, suitable funeral services were conducted for the Rev. Madison A. Harlan, another retired minister of our Conference. The pastor of the Union City church was in charge. Brief messages were given by Dr. R. A. Morrison and the superintendent of the district. Rev. F. M. Westhafer a retired member of the Indiana Conference and a brother of our own E. B. Westhafer, went to heaven from his home in New Castle, March 17. The funeral services were held in First Church, New Castle, March 20, the pastor, Rev. John F. Edwards, in charge. Drs. C. E. Bacon, John M. Walker, and an old-time friend, Brother Hixon, all members of the Indiana Conference, spoke the words of comfort and hope. Brother Westhafer was in charge of the new Centenary Church in New Castle until failing health compelled him to relinquish his work.

Upon my return Friday evening, March 31, from the annual meeting of the Board of Control of the Preachers' Aid Society, I was shocked to learn of the sudden death of Miss Grace Nicholson, daughter of Bishop Thomas Nicholson, of Chicago, a teacher of music and art in Earlham College. The grief-stricken father, accompanied by Dr. John H. Race, of the Methodist Book Concern, came to Richmond for the body, and after brief services, conducted by Dr. Race, assisted by the local pastors, took train at 10.45 A. M. for Mount Vernon, Iowa, where the loved one was laid to rest beside her mother.

Changes.—In early September O. C. Kintner resigned the Charlottsville charge for a position with Asbury College. Brother J. Harvey Brown was secured for the vacated charge. He is here for admission on trial. In late May, U. O. Beadles, a supply, surrendered the Williamsburg charge to seek health in the Far West. Rev. J. J. Fischer took charge until a permanent pastor could be secured. In two months he reorganized the work and brought it into the $1,500 class. Rev. F. C. Knowles was taken from the Philadelphia charge to become the permanent pastor and is carrying the work forward in good fashion. E. R. Garrison was secured for Philadelphia, but after a very brief stay relinquished to attend school. Rev. J. B. Vickery assumed charge for the remainder of the year. Immediately following the resignation of Brother Westhafer, Brother Orville French, son of Rev. J. H. French, took charge and closed the year's work with Centenary, New Castle. He also seeks admission on trial at this session. In early March the Rev. W. W. Wiant was transferred by Bishop Leete from First Church, New Castle, to the church in Mishawaka. The resourceful head of the Indianapolis Area brought Brother John F. Edwards from Market Street, Logansport, to New Castle, where he closed a good year with a happy people.

Our Retired Ministry.—Brothers Sylvester Billheimer, L. P. Pfeifer, and J. O. Bills reside within the bounds of the district, at Hagerstown, Greenfield, and Lewisville. Brother R. T. Laslie is in Hardinsburg, Kentucky; Drs. F. G. Browne and M. S. Marble reside in Indianapolis—judging by what I hear of their activities in and about that city, I conclude that they are retired men in name only. Prof. W. W. Sweet, a member of the Greenfield Quarterly Conference, still holds a professorship in DePauw University.

District Meetings.—These meetings this year were attended as never before by both laymen and ministers. Moreover, there was an unusually fine spirit of fellowship. May 3 the pastors and district stewards met in First Church, Richmond. At this meeting, in addition to routine business and a good program, both bodies in separate session voted unanimously to secure a district parsonage. The stewards elected a committee to canvass the whole matter and report on call of the district superintendent. An enthusiastic Woman's Home Missionary Society convention was held in Red Key, June 7 and 8. This Conference Convention gave a great uplift to the work of Richmond District. The Epworth League Convention was held in Parker, June 14 and 15. A good program with a full attendance. Again the chapters pledged the support of Dr. Lowry, their missionary in China—$1,465 was promised and is being paid. Our next district meeting was also in charge of the Epworth League. This meeting, a booth festival, was held in the park in New Castle, August 30. This was the first effort in behalf of anything of this kind in this district. More than $500 was secured for the Methodist hospital. September 20, the Annual Church in Action campaign was opened with a district picnic in the New Castle park. It was a good day of pleasure and instruction. After a picnic luncheon, all assembled on the well-shaded hillside and listened to inspiring addresses on the live church issues of the day. An especially helpful message was brought by our Area secretary, Brother Jesse P. Bogue. From this meeting the pastors carried good programs to every church in the district. In October, the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society convention was held in Economy. The church was full at every session. A good program with home and foreign talent was presented. Reports indicated advance, and new goals were set for the future. This society has marched upward all along the way from 1918 to 1921—$3,724, $5,056, $5,239—$6,111, and to this 1922 Conference reports $6,281.

District Settlement Day.—This day was observed this year by an all-day meeting in Union City. Though the place of meeting was far off center, the district was well represented. The speakers for the daytime from outside the district were Dr. E. I. Bulgin, who was at that time conducting a revival campaign in Cambridge City. His message was timely, sane, and helpful. Secretary Jesse P. Bogue also spoke with unusual thrill and greatly stirred all hearts. Dr. L. C. Bentley, of First Church, Anderson, came on at night with a great address on the Ecumenical Conference.

District Conference—I do not overstate the matter when I say that the district Conference held in New Castle, March 1, 2, and 3, was the greatest I ever attended. (a) Attendance.—There are forty-five ministers in Richmond District and forty-five were present—100 per cent. Laymen were in evidence in large numbers—several were scheduled to speak, all appeared on time. No minister failed to perform the task assigned. (b) Program.—The speakers from outside were Dr. O. W. Fifer, of Central Avenue Church, Indianapolis, who gave a great message to pastors; Dr. John Z. Moore, of Korea, gave a forceful and convincing address; Dr. E. D. Kohlstedt, of Chicago, gave what was pronounced by the large audience present, the best stereopticon lecture they had ever heard.

One young man was licensed to preach, two local preachers in course of study took their examinations, and three were recommended to this Conference session for admission on trial.

Through the good offices of the Committee on Conservation and Advance, Mrs. Sarah C. McKnabb was secured for an itinerary covering the period from February 12 to March 23. This elect lady, who had spent twenty-two years in the foreign field, came to the twenty-five charges, visited with a large fund of information given in such pleasing fashion that the people who heard were inspired to better thinking and doing for the Kingdom. Our Area secretary secured Dr. Willis S. Rowe for six subdistrict rallies, covering the period from March 5 to 10 inclusive. Dr. Rowe addressed fourteen meetings attended by 1,297 people. The service thus rendered was a great help to the Centenary.

Building and Improvements.—December 19, the hard-working pastor and people of the Hagerstown charge dedicated their beautiful, modern church which was erected at a cost of $30,000. Dr. Kendall, representing the Board of Church Extension, conducted a series of helpful meetings leading up to dedication, and, with the pastor, C. W. Chadwick, took charge of the services of that eventful day. This was a heroic undertaking. Pastor and people are entitled to great credit. The 14th of November, Third Church, Richmond, was burned, with only $2,000 insurance, and a small membership of 169, not one of whom represented even moderate wealth. An exceedingly grave situation confronted this congregation, which had only recently struggled out of debt. The plucky pastor, Rev. E. L. Gates, rallied his office bearers, and not a few of the heart-broken, discouraged members, and before the city firemen had left the smoldering ruins, all had agreed to attempt to rebuild. This spirit has continued to this day and, now, after tithing their income—made less and less because of the retrenchments of industries in the city, not once, but twice, and pouring in offerings on top of all, this noble people and heroic pastor are unitedly walking the pathway of the sacrificial life, in joyous anticipation of a return to the old homeground in a fine, commodious, new church. April 16 is the day set for the dedication. The church, when completed, will cost about $15,000.

McCordsville, H. L. Adams, pastor, is completing a $30,000 church, which will be ready for dedication soon after Conference.

Maxwell, on the Maxwell charge, C. A. Mitchell, pastor, is building a new $16,000 church which will be ready for dedication in a short time. This, with the parsonage built five years ago, gives this congregation elegant church property.

Dunkirk, C. G. Yeomans, pastor, has improved the parsonage at a cost of $1,575. Other charges report improvements ranging from $800 down to $40. The total expended for building and improvements is $46,688—a gain over last year. We have church property valued at $920,750, and parsonage property at $137,250—a total of $1,058,000.

Debts Paid.—The following charges have paid debts as indicated: Portland, $3,100; Portland Circuit, $2,575; First Church, Richmond, $2,500; Grace Church, $4,000; Union City, $1,585; Winchester, $845; Red Key, $600; Whitewater, $500. Others from $300 to $150, making a total of $12,175. The present indebtedness on the district is $66,075.

Salary Statement.—In the main our people honor ministerial claims. Because of this spirit the district has advanced from year to year in every item. The amount paid last year was $89,416; the reports to this session will show about $91,827; a total gain in seven years of $47,746.

Church Literature.—We show a good gain in subscribers for the "Western Christian Advocate"—1,145—a gain of 117. There is a steady increase in the number of Sunday-school periodicals used in our schools.

Church Organizations.—The Sunday schools show an enrollment of 13,778, which is a gain over last year. Methodist literature is used and all are organized into missionary societies. The total contributed to missions this year is $8,797, an average of $111 per school. The Christmas offering from the schools and churches totaled in round numbers $2,000. The Epworth Leagues, while not what they should be, have shown improvement. The Ladies' Aid Socities are doing the best work they have ever done. They report $25,000 for this year. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and the Woman's Home Missionary Society have advanced their goals, increased their pledges, organized many new auxiliaries, and have raised $9,968, a good advance.

Evangelism and Church Membership.—The spirit of real New Testament evangelism, which was intended to be a part of the Centenary program, should not be allowed to abate. In a word, we must have an evangelism which arrests the attention and captures the whole man, and, if possible, the entire life for Jesus. With this teaching in mind, I have urged revivals and church-membership building throughout the district. The pastors, men of soul passion, have responded, and I am able to report, as the result of their earnest efforts, 1,488 professed conversions, and 1,222 accessions to the churches. We now have 15,039 members enrolled—a gain for the year of 932. Only one charge failed to report conversions, and no charge failed of accessions. All classes of charges were blessed by these seasons of refreshing and ingathering: Portland Circuit, 182; Greenfield, 155; Pennville, 98; Grace Church, Richmond, 78; Winchester Circuit, 54; Kennard, 55; Winchester, 52; Red Key, New Castle, Dublin, Whitewater, 50 each; Cambridge City, 38; and other charges ranging from 35 to 5. In addition to this work, and to conserve results, several pastors are trying out recreational and social programs and church night meetings. In not a few churches the old-time prayer-meeting and class-meeting spirit is manifest. The pastors of these churches should rejoice and give thanks several times a day.

Centenary and Benevolences.—Now for a few statements and figures, depressing or otherwise. In the face of one of the most terrible and far-reaching moral breakdowns in the history of the planet, in the face of national and international efforts to repudiate honest debts and solemn obligations; in the presence of general selfishness, lawlessness, and greed for gain—hear me! In the presence of all this and more, the great wonder is that there is so little slump in the so-called payments for the Centenary this year. Thank God! The church of God constant shall remain. Her Christ is not dead—he never will be. He is regal amd militant—so is his church. He is not fighting a losing battle. "He shall not fail." If we part company with him, whether we be individual man or nation, we shall fail. We may cling to our lands and stocks and bonds and fail. We must, in order to permanently succeed, have Jesus. The Centenary will not fail, for Christ is in it and with it.

Centenary and Benevolences.—The official quota for the Centenary for the first year was more than met—percentum—101.1 per cent. The quota for the second year and a fraction was exceeded, the percentum being 116 per cent. The entire quota for the three years closing April, 1, 1922—$231,288—I am glad to say has been a little more than fully met—$246,169—$16,000 above the quota for this period.

The Conference Benevolences have been paid as per apportionment. The grand total, including Disciplinary and Annual Conference Benevolences, and other cash items, is $143, 905. Last year the grand total was $122,292.

The Area Building Project.—Both laymen and ministers in this district, lying hard-by our State capital, should be greatly interested in the proposed Area building. It affords me great pleasure to report that this is the case. I hear favorable comment on all sides and fully expect Richmond District Methodism to give liberal support.

The Preachers' Aid Endowment.—The campaign for $150,000 was opened in May of last Conference year by Dr. R. A. Morrison and his able assistants. It practically closed at the end of that year. At that time we were over the top. Some supplementary work was done soon after the opening of this year and we are able to report $164,394 subscribed, with payments on these subscriptions of $56,118. There would seem to be little doubt about the full million dollars for the Conference when the campaigns on the three great districts yet to be canvassed close.

Final Word.—It has been good to toil with the devoted pastors of this district, who, with all other duties honored, have made 29,993 pastoral visits. In response to the call of these men a royal, loyal body of laymen have stood by throughout the year. Without them, these reports would be impossible. Blessings upon one and all. Amen.

WABASH DISTRICT.

W. B. Freeland, District Superintendent.

The quaint verses of Geoffrey Chaucer celebrate the time of the year when the showers of April have pierced the drought of March, and when the grass and leaves grow again. The poet tells us that at that time folks long to go on pilgrimages, and palmers seek strange shores and distant shrines. These expressions all remind us of the Conference report—the moving van. Partakers in that energy which comes with the return of the sun to our hemisphere, we are met to give account of our stewardship. The sacred writings tell us of the Methodist itinerant in these words: "He that goeth forth and weepeth (not because he does not get a bigger appointment, but because of the urge of eternity in his heart) bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him."

W. B. Freeland

After the assignment of forty-six men to the work of the Wabash District last year, it was discovered that we needed another helper, and the Roanoke Circuit was organized with the Rev. Hardin P. Young as pastor. All of the men who received appointment will report their work except Brother W. M. Smith, of Liberty Mills, who suffered such serious impairment of health in December that he requested release from his work, and the Rev. Joseph M. Pugh was employed to complete the task of the year. At the Campbell home, in the month of May, John O. Campbell and Miss Bessie F. Payne were married by Dr. T. M. Guild and Dr. F. E. Day. On September 1, the Rev. T. M. Guild and Miss Myrtle C. Judkins were happily united in marriage. There have been no deaths in any of our homes of the active or retired men. Protracted illness is mentioned in the cases of Sisters Lacy, Myers, Sturgell, and Phillips. Brother Harbour, of Laketon, was the victim of an automobile accident, but he has improved in the condition of his injured body until he is able to carry on much of his accustomed activity again.

Geraldine Joy Pugh came to the home of Brother A. W. Pugh and wife, June 4; and to the home of Brother H. P. Young and wife came Keith Vernell Young, November 12. Donald Bartlett Wischmeier, son of C. C. and wife, born April 5.

I should like to mention the presence of our retired men, and may say that they are helpful and in good favor in the various places where they reside. They are: J. W. Bowen and L. M. Krider, Marion; J. W. Cain, DeLand, Florida; H. A. Ewell, Dayton, Ohio; J. T. Fettro, South Whitley; T. F. Frech, W. E. Murray, C. H. Murray, and T. M. Guild, Huntington; O. V. L. Harbour, Laketon; J. M. Rush, Riverside, Washington; J. W. Tilman, North Manchester; J. L. Murr, Milroy; and G. B. Work, Circleville, Ohio.

Our district meeting was held at First Church Wabash, May 10. With the same spirit of devotion to a great task which has characterized them each year, our pastors came to plan their work. It would be difficult to find such intelligent and sustained enthusiasm in any body of men, either in the ministry or without. To a wholesome degree they were put on their own initiative. The time has passed when the minister should consult a blueprint before he tries to win a person for the Kingdom or make a pastoral call. Let him get the step and march on in the great work to which he has been called of God. The Woman's Home Missionary Society assembled at Marion, June 8 and 9. The Woman's Foreign Missionary met at Fairmount, November 4 and 5. Both of these organizations sustained their high levels of work, and voted to accept larger tasks. The district convention of the Epworth League met at Fairmount, June 21 and 22. The dew of youth and the vision of youth were in evidence. Settlement Day, December 6, at First Church, Wabash, was marked by the inspiring addresses of Doctor A. G. Neal, of the Goshen District, and by the much appreciated address of Bishop Leete. The steady perseverance of these pastors, as they discussed definite goals of church work, in a concrete form, revealed a clearness and a definiteness which promise service of a high character. The session of the day, and the program as directed and carried out, brought knowledge of the same fine, orderly movement of forces. The church rallies were reported to have reached almost every one of our eighty churches, and to have had an attendance of 15,359 persons.

The district Conference at North Manchester was inspired by the addresses of Secretary Jesse Bogue and Dr. E. D. Kohlstedt. The activities were seen to focus on the well-rounded plans of the year.

The pastor at Lincolnville, with his family, has enjoyed the use of a neat cottage which was purchased at a cost of $1,600. A house at Lancaster has been purchased for the pastor; the cost was $800. Mount Etna has secured additional real estate near the church, and through the leadership of Brother Robins, rejoices in a fine residence for the pastor. The cost of the house was about $2,500. The small membership at Rigdon has built a very beautiful house for $4,500. Brother Harter is a master of the art of building. At Bippus, Etna, and Lagro, improvements on the parsonages have been made. Upland and Van Buren report improvements to the extent of $1,000 each. The church at Jerome has been repaired. At South Whitley a basement has been completed. Disko has put in a basement which is much appreciated by those whom the church serves. Ninth Street, Marion, is much improved by painting, interior finishing, and the removal of the old tower. The enterprise cost about $650. Lagro, Wabash Street, Gas City, Fairmount, Roanoke, and Columbia City report repairs and improvements of $500 each. Swayzee, Point Isabel, and other places have expended various sums on church or parsonage. Churubusco has had a real debt-paying campaign. They have raised the entire sum of their indebtedness, and one-half of it is already paid in the sum of $2,100. At the Fourth Quarterly Conference, at Marion, First Church, I witnessed the unusual sight of a stack of notes which aggregated about the sacred number of one hundred and forty and four thousand dollars on the table as the pastor read the business plans for financing the new church there.

One year ago, the financial advances of the people on the salary line were generous. The following places advanced the salaries: Larwill, Jonesboro, Grace Church, Mount Etna, Swayzee, South Whitley, 100 each; Churubusco, Burkey, Lincolnville, $150 each; Fairmont, Liberty Mills, North Manchester, Upland, Warren, $200 each; Akron and Gas City, $300 each; Wabash, First, and Roanoke, $500 each; Point Isabel, $550; Marion, First Church, $600; Hunington, $800; Rigdon, $950. The ministerial support of Wabash District has increased $30,000 in the last three years, and yet for the services demanded and the additional number of men employed, the compensation is, in many cases, inadequate. We shall have a few deficits in the salaries, but the loyalty and sacrifices of the people are to be commended. The recovery will come in a brief course of time. As to reductions, there will be nothing except in one or two industrial places. For next year six or seven charges have promised increases and others will follow as soon as financial conditions will warrant.

In the matter of the Centenary it should be said that a dangerous spirit is manifesting itself in the churches which seem to be anxious to "get back" some of their money. To identify local projects with benevolent giving is always a very questionable procedure. Such association is destructive of the spirit of benevolence. There if anywhere we are to give without hoping to receive in return. To claim "our missionary money" is a poor expression of gratitude. Such propaganda is destructive of the very life of our benevolent boards. By attention to the Centenary in our district programs and meetings, by prayerful attention in our congregation, by personal suasion, our brethren have endeavored to conserve the work. Some have walked, others have resorted to certain other primitive methods of travel, and nearly all have been diligent and patient in their labors. Members have sacrificed and shown loyalty to their pledges under distressing circumstances. Would that such things could be said of all! We have been pained by some who have violated sacred pledges and promises. They offer a curious example in the ethics of the church life. The advance reports show that the field has been cared for and that, in spite of the stringent times, we are nearing the mark of last year.

The Epworth Leagues of the district maintain more than their accstomed activities. An increasing number of them have been attending the institute. They return to their chapters with more of the knowledge of world work; their vision is heightened by association with the missionaries and other workers of the best type. At an officers' Conference in Marion a Conference organization was formed recently, for the purpose of more united efforts of the League. A word is due the juniors' and the children's missionary societies, together with their workers. Such work is not conspicuous, but it represents the very foundation of the Kingdom. The work of the Ladies' Aid Societies is so helpful in many ways that special mention should be made of the good which is done in very many places. Improvements, subscriptions to current funds, and fine blocks of subscriptions on new buildings are all in evidence. Some of these societies do real social and evangelistic work and are a real supplement to the pastoral work. Our seventy-nine Sunday schools were never more efficient. The increases in attendance which were noted one and two years ago have been maintained with regularity, and the list is larger than ever. Fifteen thousand two hundred are enrolled in the study of the Word.

The injured spirituality of the time of the World War is in process of recovery. The ideals which were defended on the field of battle are now winning in the hearts of men. I think only four or five of the pastors went out of the ranks of their brethren for help in the evangelistic campaigns. Many of them held their own meetings. Those who did not are about ready to go over to the majority, and dispense with some brands of professional evangelism which make the truly devout almost weep tears of blood. When the vision of the wounded Christ is overshadowed by cheap spectacle, when the Word is forgotten for the striking slangy slush which is sometimes employed, when expedient is patent and unfair, when the voice of prayer is drowned in the clang of the slip horn, when cheap confession takes the place of regeneration by the Holy Spirit; then it is time to inquire whether the Christ remains in the upper chambers of our souls, or whether, having grown tired of the associations, he has gone out quietly and in a time when the lower chambers were full of lightness and irreverence. What an awful thing to find that he has gone! When the belief of any generation, when the doctrine of polity of any men or of any association of men will create the character which I find in the lives of my father and mother and their brethren and sisters in the church which fostered me in the weakness and the ignorance of my youth; then, and only then, shall I willingly relinquish the faith which made such men and women. When other practice and conduct will put more iron into the blood, and make courage and devotion which will outshine the stalwarts who believed the Book; then, and only then, will I be willing to follow the lead of those who call for license and indulgence. I rejoice in the "band of men whose hearts God has touched," who have preached the Word, and who report real spiritual awakenings. Claypool, Morris Chapel, Larwill, Highland Avenue, Lincolnville, Swayzee, Lagro, and Liberty Mills charges report from twenty to thirty each. Silver Lake, Marion, Grace, Rigdon, Sims, Warren, and Akron report from thirty to forty each; Lafontaine, Upland, Churubusco Circuit, Home Park, Wabash Street, Van Buren, Huntington, and Wabash First Church report from fifty to one hundred each. The conversions total about 1,350. The striking thing is that these successful meetings are so generally distributed. Two-thirds of the charges have had real revivals, and one-half of the charges have had twenty or more each.

Personally, I have held 188 Quarterly Conferences, attended many meetings of boards and committees, administered the communion, tried to be a brother to preachers and laymen, and I have preached 202 times. The work has been difficult, and the journeyings oft and wearisome. I think I have put more than one year of my life into the last twelve-month; but I have had the precious privilege of serving the greatest cause that the mind of God ever conceived. Many have been the evidences of his goodness; often have I relied upon him to direct the minds of men, with whom I have wrought. In whatever victories which have come to us all, I rejoice with a great divine gladness.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

There is no book whose truth and teaching is so much needed by humanity as that of the Bible; and yet it is a book the study of which is sadly neglected. We cannot expect to build a Christian civilization except upon the truths contained in this book; which is more than a mere literary masterpiece. A deeper and more universal knowledge and a wider application of Scriptural truth is one of the unmistakable needs of this hour.

Because of this the American Bible Society should be encouraged and generously supported in its great work of scattering broadcast this seed, which is the Word of God.

The Committee,

A. F. White, L. W. Kemper,
C. B. Sweeney, C. W. Montgomery,

CHURCH LITERATURE

Methodism to-day as ever abounds in good literature. The far reaching activities of the church necessitates a variety and extent of periodic publications almost unparalleled. The Methodist Book Concern unexcelled as it is in mechanical equipment and in intellectual leadership annually produces literally tons of as good religious literature as is found anywhere, and the very best for the people called Methodists.

Our books so extensively cover the field of religious and ethical thought, that it is safe to suggest that reliable information can be obtained on almost any theme from books produced by our concern. The purchase and reading of good books should be encouraged by our people and pastors.

The Western Christian Advocate, with its keen vision, has an inspiring message for all members of the church. No one can read its pages, catch its spirit, and get its out-look without being led into a larger and fuller life of service. We urge its more general use by all our people.

The Sunday School literature, the Epworth Herald, The Methodist Review, The Voice of Temperance and Public Morals, The Missionary News, the tracts and special pamphlets sent out by the Area Office and Committee on Conservation and Advance of the great Centenary Movement are all of so great value in their respective fields as to deserve special attention and consideration from all our people.

We, your Committee on Church Literature, recognize the high privilege and great opportunity the pastors have to encourage the use of this valuable reading matter, recommend, that with untiring zeal they strive to put all our literature within the reach of as many people as possible. We believe no greater service can be rendered to the Master.

DEACONESS BOARD OF CONTROL

The Conference Deaconess Board met in its annual session for the transaction of business. Miss Mary J. Metts who had been a probationer for three years was licensed and elected to consecration, which was consumated on Sunday afternoon in a beautiful service.

We commend the work of the General Deaconess Board to the prayerful attention of our people, both in the material support of this great church interest and also in the dedication of their daughters to this beautiful service.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS

We, the committee on district conference journals, have examined the journals of the various districts. We find them very neatly bound, the secretary's records carefully written and the reports complete. We commend the secretaries for their work.

Respectfully submitted,
J. F. Lutey,
J. C. Woodruff,
Burl M. Bechdolt.

EDUCATIONAL REPORT.

There is no greater need confronting the world today than that of Christian education. In recognition of this fact the Methodist Episcopal Church is producing schools of collegiate grade and Christian standards.

The success of these institutions of learning has been so phenomenal that our present equipments are inadequate to meet the demands which we have stimulated, and Methodists everywhere are urged to meet the challenge.

Wesley Foundation

Not only do we furnish schools of our own denomination, but the religious interests of Methodist students in other institutions are carefully guarded. Our young people in Indiana University, and Purdue University are ministered unto by the Wesley Foundation, which works in coöperation with the Methodist churches in those cities.

Out of the total enrollment at Purdue, there are eleven hundred Methodist students. In Indiana University there are nine hundred and seventeen students from Methodist homes. Seven hundred are regular attendants at the morning worship in First Church, one hundred and seventy five are enrolled in Sunday School, one hundred and fifty in the Epworth League, thirty in the choir and twelve in the Sunday School orchestra.

Missionary interest is stimulated by a series of meetings held annually, and active participation in the support of Miss Bell Overman in Korea. Social enjoyment is directed by the fourth department of the Epworth League, and there is a happy mingling of the young people of the town and University.

DePauw University.

We again commend our great college, DePauw University to the favorable consideration of the Methodists of the North Indiana Conference. While maintaining high educational standards that meet the requirements of our University, Senate and the various State and National Boards and Associations, DePauw maintains her lofty christian ideals and reaffirms her loyalty to the great Christian fundamentals. Every teacher in the school is a member of some branch of the Evangelical Christian Church. The percentage of church membership in the Christian body is constantly rising until now 95% of the student body are members of some Evangelical Church. Fifty-two students are preparing for the ministry or missionary work and fifty more are preparing for other forms of Christian activity. It is gratifying to report that eighteen men of last year's class are preparing for the ministry. Several of them are now attending our theological schools. We recommend that all of our young men equip themselves thoroughly by scholastic training for the ministry of our church.

Through the various lecture foundations, DePauw University is contributing to Evangelical Christianity a rich and diversified literature. In the past year, Bishop McConnell delivered a course of lectures on "Popular Preaching" on the Matthew Simpson foundation. On the Mendenhall Foundation, Bishop McDowell delivered a course on Christian Life Service and on the Beamer Foundation for Christian Missions, Bishop Welch delivered a course on "The Far Eastern Question."

The great problems confronting DePauw today is how to care properly for the large and increasing student body. Education is becoming increasingly popular. All of the colleges of our country are taxed to capacity. Our own DePauw finds herself embarrassed because she cannot take care of the increasing number of students that knock at her doors for admission. The present year records an enrollment of over 1300 students with a normal capacity for but one thousand.

Realizing the imperative need for further expansion the trustees have launched a campaign for a million dollars additional endowment. Toward this, the General Education Board has already pledged $250,000.00. This campaign, together with a campaign for $500,000.00 for additional buildings, will be launched January 1st, 1923, under the direction of Dr. Hancher. We pledge our loyalty and support to this campaign which has for its purpose the proper Christian education of the youth of our church.

We invoke God's blessing upon DePauw University, her officers and faculty, and pray that she may continue to stand for noble and true Christian principles.

We also recommend the reappointment of Rev. Dr. C. U. Wade as Endowment Secretary.

We also recommend the election of A. B. Cline and R. S. Todd as Trustees of DePauw University to succeed themselves for a term of three years.

General Board.

The General Board of Education moves in the vanguard of all our religious advancement. Thoroughly Christian at heart it functions to the glory of God in its achievements throughout our church boundaries, making its emphasis evident whenever and wherever our colleges or universities need wise counsel, or coöperative assistance. The Board is ever encouraging and inspiring our young people to the highest possible Christian ideal of education and constantly lending its financial support to worthy individuals as well as to the Institution itself. The Children's Day Fund, being augmented from year to year increases the possible assistance, and the public educational collections are always being placed where they will give perpetual assistance.

Theological Schools.

Our theological schools, Boston, Drew, Garret, Iliff, all make glowing and inspiring reports. Classes are crowded with determined young, eager to make the largest possible preparation to meet the need of the hour. Sound doctrine in Biblical teaching is ever kept in the foreground, and Christ is presented as the only foundation for permanent good. This spirit and ideal permeates all studies looking either to work on the foreign field or at the home base, whether it be coping with religious superstition and fear on the foreign field or dealing with intricate and complex social problems of the city, rural or frontier life of our own land.

We wish to urge upon each and every young man or woman, looking to the work of the ministry in our conference or elsewhere to avail themselves of the opportunity which the church is providing for their equipment for service.

We also recommend our school at Jacksonville, Illinois, for young women. We appoint conference visitors as follows:

Garret.....Herbert Clugston
Drew.....Frank Morris
Boston.....John Edwards
Jacksonville.....L. C. Bentley
DePauw.....M. O. Lester, for a period of three years, beginning September 1, 1922.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The Master's command "to go" in these later days has been coupled with the urgent invitation to "come" not only from Macedonia but also from heart hungry millions of China, India, Korea, the Philippines, Malaysia, Africa, South America, Europe, and practically every other non-Christian people. The church today faces the most challenging opportunity of its history.

This condition has been produced by the one hundred years we and our fathers patiently, faithfully planted the seed, sowing often in tears and often disappointed. Today we find this seed-sowing timed by God to a marvelous series of world events including the advance of modern science, arts, education and commerce, the Japanese-Chinese war, the Boxer Rebellion, the Americanization of the Philippines, the Japanese-Russian war, numerous other wars especially the World's War. All these coupled with the rise and development of the American Republic which is as a light set upon a hill that has been seen as a beacon of hope by every oppressed and backward people.

China's four hundred million have turned their back upon their old civilization and have turned their faces toward America. America is their ideal, is their trusted friend, begging us to teach them every good thing that God has taught us. Hundreds of cities and towns where only five years ago it would have been impossible to have hired a hall in which to hold Methodist services today are begging us to give them the Bread of Life.

Korea experiencing a nation wide movement toward Christ—The Philippines hungry for the gospel story—India's millions,—the Mass Movements among the more humble castes and a large hungry hearing given the gospel message by the higher castes and the educated—Many African chieftans coming asking for a missionary to guide them into the new life they have determined they need—Our Missionary chapels and churches crowded in war stricken Europe—Millions practically everywhere throughout the earth hungry of soul for a new, better day. The Centenary askings were for the minimum needs of 1916, and this year, 1922, finds us challenged by so much larger, greater tasks that the full askings of 1916, if we had them, would fall far short of gathering this harvest for our Lord and Master.

The North Indiana Conference has ever endeavored to see the providential leadings of God, and to follow unflinchingly when led by our Great Commander.

We recognize the financial conditions that have made it difficult for us to pay our Centenary pledges, nevertheless, we have an unwavering faith that God's command to go forward means that he will give strength as we try and that the waters do part as we step into them.

Therefore, feeling assured that God has not brought all these new civilizations to the birth-hour without being willing to give strength that they may be brought forth:—We, the North Indiana Conference, pledge ourselves to endeavor: (1) That by the grace of God we will bring up all Centenary arrears and meet our apportionments in full. (2) We will make a faithful, enthusiastic recanvass of our entire membership for additional, new subscriptions having in view the fulfilment of our responsibilities according to the larger needs of the Kingdom, in the year of our Lord, 1922, believing that the Centenary movement was but the inauguration of new, and yet larger movements of the second century of Methodist Missions.

HOSPITALS.

Report of Committee.

Your Committee on Hospitals rejoices that our Indiana Houses of Mercy have been well administered and that our great central institution at Indianapolis has grown to be the largest of our Methodist institutions of hospital character, dedicating its large, new building in October, 1921. This, with our hospitals at Fort Wayne and Princeton, constitute our provision for this service. Both of our subsidiary institutions have had good years, and Fort Wayne has made marked advancement, commanding the confidence of the city and its increasing number of patrons, due to the wise direction of Dr. Wimill F. Stube, whose safe and progressive policy has attached new friends and created a confidence which has made the atmosphere of Fort Wayne most healthful for our hospital interests. Our Indiana institutions have done over half a million dollars worth of curative and surgical work the past year, and our financial management deserves the hearty endorsement, which we hereby extend. We urge our church to an earnest support of the efforts of our administration in the direction of clearing all present indebtedness.

In this connection we desire to express our conviction that a general administration, providing for the largest possible autonomy of each institution under Methodist control, is the best policy to pursue.

Our Training Schools.

Our nurses training schools are of the highest grade at all of our institutions, with Indianapolis, of course, affording the notably larger opportunities. Our hospitals are in constant need of enlistments in our nurse training schools, and we commend the opportunities offered for this professional training to our Methodist girls who are looking in the direction of that service. Our pastors should be alert to enlist the interest of our young women in this need, and to direct them to our own institutions with their general educational opportunity as well as the professional training accorded.

Our need at Indianapolis is a new nurses' home, and we hope that such a provision of accomodations commensurate with the size of our great central institution may be realized as soon as financial conditions warrant.

A Hospital Chaplaincy.

We urged last year the consideration of the provision of a Chaplain at Indianapolis, through whom our patients might receive religious and spiritual attention and to whom all might feel free to appeal for service. Our conviction deepens that the time is ripe for the establishment of such an office and we urge the Board of Trustees at their next meeting to make such a provision. We believe that similar provision should be made for our smaller institutions, even though the pastor of the community were drafted for part time service as a beginning in this direction.

Booth Festival Day.

The observance of Booth Festival Day by our Epworth Leagues grows constantly and the chapters are therefore of increasing assistance to the hospitals under our control. The results last fall in the territory adjacent to Fort Wayne aggregated more than $3,000.00. The treasury at Indianapolis was enriched by $2,500.00. We recommend that Goshen, Fort Wayne and Wabash Districts continue to make the Methodist Hospital at Fort Wayne their beneficiary and that Logansport, Richmond and Muncie Districts turn their results to the assistance of Indianapolis. We urge every Epworth League chapter to emphasize and lay stress upon the observance of Booth Festival Day in the coming fall.

Nominations.

We appreciate the pains taking care exercised by our Board of Directors and endorse their management of our hospital interests through the past year. To succeed themselves as trustees, terms expiring in 1925, we nominate for your approval and election, W. W. Martin, of Fort Wayne, and C. A. Wood, of Muncie. We again recommend the appointment of official conference visitors to our hospitals, whose report shall be submitted to the Committee on Hospitals for its consideration at our session next Spring. We therefore request the cabinet to name such visitors.

Bibles.

We believe that each of the rooms in all our hospitals should be furnished a Bible so that at hand each patient may have access to the Word of God as he feels inclined.

South Bend Interests.

The offer to our Hospital Association of a plant in South Bend worth at the very least figure $150,000.00, constitutes an opportunity we can not afford to neglect. We understand that this plant comes to us without debts of any character, and that at present it is paying operating expenses. The only condition attached is that larger accommodations shall be provided as soon as practical. We therefore recommend to our Board of Trustees the acceptance of this gift.

Financial Agency.

The increasing financial needs of our institutions justify the appointment of a field agent. We approve of this policy, but we urge that in the selection of such a representative attention should be given to the fitness of the choice as manifested in his record of work in our ministry. We feel that no appointment would be justified unless it gave to the service of our institutions a man eminently qualified for such service. In event of such an appointment we shall welcome him to our pulpits to represent this institution.

We recommend the continuance of the per capita assessment of 10 cents per member in support of our hospitals to be appropriated by the general board with special attention to the needs of our smaller institutions.

Expressing our deep conviction that no work expresses more accurately the spirit of Him who went about doing good than our houses of mercy, we call upon our people to pray and work and give for these institutions which have already made a most successful record of work for God and man.

METHODIST MEMORIAL HOME FOR THE AGED.

The Committee for the Methodist Memorial Home for the Aged, make the following report:

This institution is owned and controlled by the North Indiana Conference.

The faithfulness of the pastors in paying the amounts apportioned to the charges has helped very much in keeping all bills for the maintainance paid up to date and it is gratifying for us to report that the Home has never gone in debt since it was organized.

The Home family consists of 49 worthy aged people, who are at the evening of life, under the protection and care of the church. The care they are getting in the Home does credit to the church. The persons in the Home are contented and happy. The Home spirit is distinctly religious and helpful.

The health of the members of this family has been excellent all year and it has been many months since one of them has been in the hospital.

The Rev. Sylvester Billheimer, one of the retired ministers of our conference, held a ten day's meeting in November, which was greatly enjoyed and appreciated by every member of the Home.

The new building is now in process of erection and will be ready for use about September of this year. This new building has a combination of hospital and dormitory facilities, which will insure the very best care for the members of the family when they become helpless, and enable the Home to receive 24 new members. The contract price for this building is $31,400 and $2,500 will be required to enlarge the heating plant. When the buidling is completed and furnished the cost will be about $40,000 The building is 93 by 38 feet, with two stories connected by corridors in both floors with the main building. A full basement containing a large laundry and equipment and a finished dwelling for the house man.

We recommend that the District Superintendents apportion ten cents per member to the charges for the Sustaining fund for next year.

We recommend that the conference set aside October 8th. as "Old Peoples' Home Sunday," at which time the pastors will call attention of the congregations to the great work the Home is doing.

We ask for the election of F. M. Presnall, F. A. Hall, J. A. Beaty, and W. B. Gutilius as trustees for a term of three years, and also for the appointment of B. S. Hollopeter, as the Corresponding Secretary for the coming year.

NEGRO EDUCATION—REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

For fifty-four years the educational work of Methodists was done under the name of the Freedman's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church. At the last General Conference the name was changed to "The Board of Education for Negroes of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Under this new name the great work of education of the negro is being carried on by eighteen institutions served by 320 professors and instructors. These splendid workers are training the future leaders of the colored race in America under Christian auspices. This is essential both for the happiness of the colored race and the safety of the nation. The Centenary has made possible the payment of debts, the making of much needed and long awaited improvements in schools, equipment and the strengthening of the faculties of these schools for their great work. From these schools more than 15,000 have graduated, from which have come prominent leaders of the race both in church and state.

We recommend that at least once a year each pastor bring before his people the character and importance of the work done by this society for the colored race and encourage their sympathetic and hearty support. Full information and suitable programs for the observance of Lincoln Memorial Sunday may be had by addressing the Secretary of the Board of Education of Negroes, 420 Plum St., Cincinnati, Ohio. Having begun a good work let us continue it until Christian leadership both for America and Africa is provided for the colored race.

Respectfully submitted,

J. F. Lutey, Chairman. F. P. Morris,
D. C. Beatty, Secretary. F. H. Cremean.

THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY—REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

Remembering the warning of Washington against entangling alliances with nations, that keep alive the feuds of dead centuries, we yet believe that America, because of her great power and high ideals, should not keep aloof from the nations of the earth, but should exert a moral influence, that will bring about a recognition of the common brotherhood of humanity and thus make a beginning of the end of war.

From a tribal state man has enlarged his human relations and extended his sympathies progressively to kingdoms, empires and republics. The last step, a spiritual coöperation and association of all nations can be brought about only when international differences are adjusted in the spirit of the Master. Therefore we rejoice in the great moral victory achieved by this country at the Disarmament

Conference. The World is slowly realizing that open diplomacy and a friendly regard for the interests of other nations is better than secret plotting and mutual suspicion.

As a means to end industrial strife we recommend not communisim but a competition open to all and fair to all. All business and industrial profits should be published. The toiler is not opposed to a fair profit for capital or talent. The observance of the golden rule between employer and employee, has prevented strikes and has brought about larger financial rewards to all concerned. Selfishness destroys, Love builds.

There is no good reason for pessimism concerning the affairs of the nation. Financial matters are rather conservative, but sound. Though we are the richest people of the world the typical American is not a worshipper of the dollar but as recent events have proven, is ready to sacrifice his wealth and even his life for the sake of ideals.

While we exploit the rescources of the earth, we do not care to exploit the lives of the peoples of weaker nations. Our attitude toward Cuba, China and the Philippines is sufficient evidence that we only desire that other nations shall have the same prosperity, liberty and happiness that we enjoy.

The present wave of violence and crime is the natural aftermath of a war that caused the death of twenty millions. When nations, either rightly or wrongly, are drawn into the destruction of life on a wholesale scale, vicious individuals are likely to conduct the same kind of business by retail methods. Surer and quicker methods of dealing out justice by our courts will accelerate the passing of this evil.

We have learned that the "Melting Pot" does not work well with the millions of foreigners segregated in our large cities.

The church should help to make these people real Americans by kindness, education, and the teaching of a vital Christianity.

Our Country is not going backward but forward. There are great problems to be solved, and the age calls for red-blooded men to help make the kingdoms of the earth the kingdoms of our Lord. Take heart for:

"Doubt not through the ages
One increasing purpose runs
And the thoughts of men are broadened
With the process of the suns."

ASHER S. PRESTON.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

1. We note the continued and renewed emphasis by the Church upon the need of religious education and wish to place ourselves on record as being in sympathy with the effort to increase not only the interest in attendance in our Church Schools but also to increase the efficiency of the work done and the proficiency of the teaching force.

2. We farther recommend that our Sunday schools coöperate with others in their respective communities in promoting and establishing Daily Vacation Bible Schools and wherever possible some plan of Week Day Religious Instruction. .

3. We note also with disappointment the, if not increasing, at least continued tendency in many places, to make the Sunday school where it is achieving in a large way, the primary Service of the Sunday morning.

We would urge that every pastor insist that the Sunday school retain its rightful place as an adjunct of the Church for the education and training of its people for becoming Christians and useful members of the Church.

That, therefore, care be taken by the Sunday School Boards of our local churches that only such leaders be chosen and elected that are in hearty sympathy with the Church's program and devotedly interested in carrying that program forward.

SUSTENTATION.

We, the committee on Sustentation approve the matter of distribution of the sustentation funds by the District Superintendents, namely, with a system of gradual reduction in amounts to the charges, preventing undue dependence on outside aid.

Upon the advice of the District Superintendents we recommend that a total of $5,600 be raised for this purpose; $1,200 being applied to the support of the Wesley Foundation at Purdue University; $4,400 to be distributed among the districts according to the amounts needed.

TEMPERANCE AND MORAL QUESTIONS—REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

It is yet true that without vision people cast off restraint. It is clear to all that the people have cast off restraint as is evinced by a war of crime, divorce, juvenile delinquency, violation of the Sabbath, and indifference to the sacredness of life.

We recognize the power and influence of the motion picture upon the life and thought of the people, and earnestly protest against its use for poisoning the public mind by a fascinating display of crime and licentiousness.

We deplore the effort of certain lawless and unchristian elements to break down the sanctity of the Christian sabbath, and pledge ourselves to resist with all the power at our command any and all such forces.

Conscious of the trend to moral laxity and believing the dance an institution which contributes to this we raise our voice uncompromisingly against its practice in any form. Further, believing improper and immodest dress another agency to deaden moral sensibilities we urge mothers to exercise the greatest care in example and paternal authority in teaching their daughters to avoid the appearance of evil and indecency.

Believing tobacco and especially cigarettes, injurious to the body and mind of our youth, we pledge ourselves to discourage its use in every way and to do our utmost to secure the enactment of laws to suppress its use on the part of minors.

Recognizing the tremendous importance of the home in the wholesome and permanent social order and feeling that any enemy of it is the most deadly enemy to our government; we are given a most serious alarm when we read that 3,767,182 men and women have secured divorce in the last twenty years and by this five and a half million minor children have been left without homes. Further, the divorce rate in the United States is constantly increasing. In 1890 there were fifty-three divorces to every one hundred thousand of the population: now it is one hundred and twenty to the same number, more than one hundred per cent increase in thirty years, which means, if not checked, the home is to become totally destroyed. Faced with such appalling peril we urge the most careful conformity to the law of the church regarding the remarriage of divorced people and in every way declare ourselves against the desecration of this sacred right.

We recognize, and greatly appreciate the most worthy work done by the Anti-Saloon League, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, Board of Temperance and Public Morals, and all other such organizations which have helped to make these causes better.

We recommend the appointment of W. W. Martin and O. A. Trabue as trustees of the Anti-Saloon League, the militant organization of the combined church forces for the strengthening of the Volstead Enforcement law, and the overthrow and complete defeat of the un-American liquor forces.

We recommend to all our people the exercise of the utmost caution in the selection of all officials having to do with the enforcement of all temperance laws, and the selection of candidates for Senate and House of United Congress.

J. W. Oborn, J. M. Stewart,

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

To Bishop Leete and Brethren, Greetings.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society wish me to extend grateful appreciation for your brotherly coöperation in the promotion of our organization throughout the conference.

During the year, thirty-six of our faithful members have passed into the Church Triumphant, among these Mrs. Edith Jackson Fisher, wife of Bishop Fred Fisher, who went home from India, and was buried in Calcutta. Mrs. Flora B. Walker, a missionary in China over thirty years, and the mother of Joyce Walker who is now in China, was laid to rest in Crown Hill, Indianapolis.

Activities: Fifty-four district conventions, group meetings and rallies have been held and five thousand five hundred and fifty-six regular meetings in all departments and two hundred public guest days have been observed. We have four hundred and thirty-eight organizations composed of one hundred and eighty-seven auxiliaries, eighty-four young people's societies, and five hundred and fifty-one children's societies.

The total membership is seventeen thousand five hundred and sixty-four, divided as follows:

2,661 Little Light Bearers,
3,328 King's Heralds,
2,166 Young Women and Standard Bearers
9,509 Auxiliary members.

We read three thousand four hundred and forty-five copies of the Friend, and two thousand two hundred and ninety-four Junior Friends. Seven thousand and more mite boxes were in use. Thirty-six Life Members and six Memorial Life Members were enrolled. One thousand and fourteen tithers, and eight hundred and seventeen intercessors have been reported.

We support fourteen missionaries on the field, twelve of them our very own girls, and two will go out this fall.

Our women are full of good works in the church and in every organization, stand ready to meet its demand. Respectfully submitted,

Florence C. Binford,
Conference Secretary.

SPECIAL WORK

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF NORTH INDIANA CONFERENCE.

Greetings to Bishop Leete, Members of the North Indiana Conference, and Members of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

After having given twenty years of faithful service as Conference Secretary of Special Work, Mrs. A. B. Cline found it necessary to sever her connection as an Officer with the Conference. Mrs. W. R. Werking of Anderson was appointed her successor. It was with deep regret that the workers of all the Districts learned of her withdrawal from active service. She has given faithful service and association with her has ever been an inspiration.

As always the cry is coming from the foreign field, "More Missionaries, More Buildings, Better Equipment," and we are all working hard to fill every need we possibly can. We are now supporting seventy Bible Women and twenty-nine Bible Women in training. Of the one hundred and seventy-five Scholarships supported by the Conference, there are several classes—Normal, High School, College, Nurse, and Industrial. We also support one Doctor in Training, one House Matron, and one Compounder of Medicines. Eight Day Schools with twelve teachers and Supervisors are credited to North Indiana Conference. Also, twenty Hospital Beds and $500 given for hospital supplies and equipment.

Besides this, we support two native missionaries and several assistants and pay the salary of fourteen girls who have gone to the field from our own Conference. Many special gifts have been sent to our missionaries and we contribute to the support of the Orphanage at Grenoble, France.

The Share Plan is now being adopted for certain countries—South America, Mexico, Japan, Korea, North Africa, and Europe and forty-five shares have already been taken among our Auxiliaries. The Shares are $20 each and may be either Medical, Educational, or Evangelistic. Consult with your District Secretary of Special Work and take one or more Shares, which will assist in training leaders for these countries. We are all beginning to realize that the only hope of evangelizing the world lies in training these native Christians to do efficient work. Do you not want a part in this? Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. W. R. Werking,
Secretary of Special Work.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

As an aftermath to the Fortieth Anniversary Celebration which was so fruitful of increase and with goals still high the Woman's Home Missionary Society is working hard this year to keep the pace that she has set for herself.

20 per cent increase all the way thru, in Members, Money and Magazines too, for 1921 and 1922 has been sounded in every society in North Indiana Conference as a standard of work, and we hope when our missionary year closes in July to find that the goal has been reached, which we believe will be if our motto "Pray, Plan, Push, and Pay" has indeed been a reality.

We number 287 Societies, 116 of these are Auxiliaries, 13 Young Woman's Auxiliaries, 58 Queen Esther Circles, 39 Home Guards' Companies, and 61 Mothers' Jewel Bands with a membership totaling 10,796, as follows:—Auxiliaries 6,023, Young People 1,804, Children 2,969.

A very high estimate of the real value to the Cause Missions must be placed upon the Study Course pursued at the regular monthly meetings and the reading of the Home Mission Magazines that find their way to more than 3,000 homes.

Every phase of the work is supported to a more or less degree by our Conference, besides assuming special obligations such as salaries, scholarships, and building pledges. Through the encouragement of Dr. A. G. Neal, the Goshen district is paying over and above their regular obligations the salary amounting to $600.00, of Mercedes Nunyez a beautiful Spanish girl serving as domestic science teacher under our own beloved Mrs. J. C. Murray, Supt. of Geo. O. Robinson Orphanage in Porto Rico.

70 Societies have a place on the National Honor Roll for having dues paid in full by November 1st. 1921, and received honorable mention for having third in the Mite-box report.

Conference Convention, six District Conventions and Group Meetings were held with profit. Special speakers were Miss Nellie Snider, Chicago, Dr. A. C. Stevens, San Francisco, Miss Olla Grace Davis, Portland, Ore., and Miss June Wright, Des Moines Ia.

Added to our list of Missionaries from this Conference are the names of Miss Faye Stults Decatur serving among the Mountain Whites of Mississippi as teacher in Bennett Academy, our Mission School, and Miss Marie Shanton Princeton, who has been accepted and will be assigned a place very soon. We have four girls in Training Schools preparing for the mission field and hope the number will be much larger next year. Mrs. Martha J. Mellinger formerly our Conference Organizer, and now a National Field Secretary is doing splendid work as she goes from conference to conference speaking in the interest of Home Missions.

The interest and support of the loyal Methodist women were never needed more than now as the task was never larger, more vital or more threatening.

It is God who in past ages
Hath controlled the tides of men;
And our God in his high heavens
Doth control today as then.
It is God who calls his children
With command both loud and clear:
Haste, O haste! my faithful workers,
I have sent the nations here.

Mrs. E. F. Hilkert,
Corresponding Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Your committee on Resolutions desires to express the appreciation of the Conference for the Leadership, inspiration and Brotherliness of our beloved Bishop Frederick D. Leete D.D., L.L.D. His sympathetic consideration of every interest of our great church deserves our hearty support, and we pledge him co-operation in every plan to advance the kingdom of Christ in the great state of Indiana.

We record our thanks to Bishop H. Lester Smith for his timely and helpful messages regarding the Centenary and our work in India.

The addresses of all the visiting brethren were on an unusually high level and were informing and helpful. Dr. Russell H. Bready the mayor of Pontiac, Mich., who gave the conference lecture and gripped his audience with his address on "The Four Square City."

The illustrated addresses of our beloved and efficient Area Secretary—Jesse Bogue—have stirred us to new enthusiasm and a determination to see the Centenary through to one hundred per cent payment.

We are deeply grateful to our genial Conference host—the Rev. Dr. D. H. Guild and to the members of Trinity Church for their thoughtful attention to our every comfort and the splendid way in which they have cared for us while in the city.

We also appreciate the courtesy of the other churches of Elkhart, both of our own and other denominations, for opening their doors and thus assisting with the work of the Conference.

We wish to mention the First National Bank, The First Old State Bank, The Elkhart Truth, The High School Authorities, The City Officials, The Boy Scouts, and any others who in any way contributed to the success of this our 79th. Annual Session.

THE TAYLOR UNIVERSITY COMMISSION REPORT.

The Journal of the session of 1921 of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, on page 49, contains the following entry:

R. A. Morrison read a resolution of overtures from Taylor University, which, on motion, was adopted. (See resolution.)

On page 88 of the same Journal is the text of the resolution, which reads as follows:

Taylor University Overtures to the North Indiana Conference.

The Board of Trustees of Taylor University, in session at Upland, Indiana, April 5, 1921, being desirous of extending the useful service of the University, and being concerned that every possible contributory agency shall be enlisted in such effort, declares as follows:

The time is at hand when the Governing Board and responisble supporting bodies of Taylor University should consider seriously whether the said University should become now or in the near future a denominational college, meeting the requirements of the University Senate and under the approval of the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

This Board suggests a joint commission of five members from the North Indiana Conference, five members from the National Association of Local Preachers, three members from the Alumni Association of Taylor University, and three members of this Board, together with Bishop Leete, of the Indianapolis area, to take under advisement these suggestions and make a careful study of all influences related, opportunities offered, and challenges confronted.

Such commission should make its report to the bodies represented in ample time for the final action of the commission to be presented to the annual session of the North Indiana Conference in 1922.

Respectfully submitted,

Approved and adopted by the Board of Trustees of Taylor University, April 5, 1921, at Upland, Indiana, appointing R. A. Morrison, he to appoint two others, as committeemen to serve on the proposed commission.

Resolved, That the plan for the commission as provided in the above resolution of the Board of Trustees of Taylor University be approved, and that the five committeemen asked for by the said Board of Trustees be appointed by this session of the North Indiana Conference to coöperate with the proposed commission when the other organizations related thereto and specified in the resolution shall have appointed their committeemen.

Resolved further, That a financial campaign shall not be inaugrated or carried forward for the school in the North Indiana Conference until the plan shall have been perfected and approved by the properly constituted authorities of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

(Signed:) Rufus A. Morrison,
T. M. Hill.

The members of the commission were announced by the Bishop; William B. Freeland, Wallace W. Martin, Charles H. Smith, Freeland A. Hall, and William T. Arnold.

At Upland, on December 15, 1921. the members of the commission met with Bishop Leete in the chair, all the members were present. S. M. Maitland, James M. Taylor, and R. A. Morrison, trustees, and Burt W. Ayres, from the alumni were in attendance. After the opening statements had been made, W. B. Freeland moved that the following order of business be observed: 1. Liabilities of Taylor University, 2. Assets of the school; 3. Titles and conveyances; 4. Incorporation and Trustees; 5. Miscellaneous. Patient and careful consideration was given to the problems which were presented, and the meeting adjourned after an exhaustive study had been made. The next meeting was to be held upon call of the Bishop.

Subsequently, each member of the Conference Commission received a notice from the Board of Trustees of Taylor University which is herewith offered:

"At a meeting of the Board of Trustees held at Upland, February 17, 1922, I was instructed as secretary of that body to notify the officers of the National Association of Local Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church and each member of the Commission on Taylor University appointed by the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church and by the Alumni Association of Taylor University, that at a meeting of the Board held January 27, 1922, 'All action taken by said Board looking to the reorganization of said Board and all propositions to said National Association of Local Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church be and the same are hereby rescinded, set aside, and annulled.' This, therefore, is to you official notification of this action."

Very truly yours,
(Signed:) A. Dickerson,
Secretary of Board of Trustees.

VETERANS OF THE CROSS, MEMORIAL.

Since we believe that too great honor cannot be paid the deceased Veterans of the Cross, both men and women, who, having wrought faithfully and well, under God, have laid all over this great Conference the foundations for the splendid achievements that gladden our hearts to-day, and make possible the greater achievements of tomorrow, and,

Since we believe that to bring, before our people, often, their deeds of fidelity and faith and sacrifice will inspire in the hearts of all the people, and especially in the hearts of the young people, a desire to be like them, noble, and faithful, and true to God and their fellow men, and,

Since the General Conference has approved the plan to recognize one Sunday in each year as "Ministers' Memorial Sunday,"

Therefore, Resolved, first, That this Conference set apart the first Sunday in June for the purpose of putting on, in all the churches, a suitable memorial service, and for the decoration of graves of our deceased brothers and sisters.

Resolved, second, That we request the pastor of each charge to seek diligently to ascertain whether there is buried anywhere within the bounds of his charge one or more of these fallen heroes and to make arrangements for suitable memorial services and decoration of graves.

We also ask that the District Superintendents call the attention of the pastors and people to this resolution.

F. M. STONE,
M. F. STRIGHT,
L. M. KRIDER,
Committee.

(XI) Plan of Conference Examinations.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

W. T. Arnold, Chairman; U. S. A. Bridge, Registrar.

1. Students will secure the proper volume of Directions and Helps from the Book Concern. Read with care.

2. A properly authenticated certificate showing that a student has already pursued and passed a satisfactory examination in a prescribed course of study as a regular attendant on the class-room instruction in any of our regular theological seminaries, universities, or colleges, approved by our University Senate, will be received in lieu of Conference examinations.

3. Certificates with grades are now required of college and seminary graduates, as well as all others.

4. Similar certificates may be received in all studies not biblical or theological, from other than Methodist schools, if of equal grade with those approved by our University Senate. The Board of Examiners in each particular case will determine whether the work done is a fair equivalent or not.

5. Certificates must contain the grades either in numerals or letters. If letters, then also their respective values.

6. Certificates containing grades designated credit shall be received, and grades entered the same as the average of those grades contained in the certificate.

7. All examinations must be taken at the Mid-year Institute, or at the seat of the Annual Conference, on Tuesday of Conference week. Exception to this rule will be made in the case of a student in the mission field. No examinations after Tuesday.

8. All written work on "books to be studied" must be given to the examiner by the time of the Mid-year Institute. All written work on "books to be read" will be due on or before March first. No credits after these respective dates.

9. Students will note Rules 7, 8, and 13, especially as to time limit. "No" means no. Remember it.

10. One paper of approximately one thousand words will be required on a chapter of each book; this applies to both lists: "books to be studied" and "books to be read." Students will select chapter.

11. Those who had "The Art of Writing English" will take "How to Study" of the old course. Examiner, Wright.

12. Those who have been conditioned in a study which is not in the new course will consult the examiner as to a substitute.

13. The directions of the Discipline 1920, par. 623, 624, 625, and 626, will be strictly enforced. Students should read with care.

14. All local preachers who are candidates for ordination will report to the Chairman of the Board of Examiners for examination.

15. All written work must be in the hands of examiners by March first, in order to receive credit. The District Superintendents are requested to urge all candidates for examination to appear at the Mid-year Institute. On motion, it was decided that before a man may be advanced from the Studies of the First and Third Year, he must have out at least two-thirds of his work. The next Institute will be held October 17, 18, and 19, 1922 at Huntington, Indiana.

16. Examination at Mid-year and the Conference of 1923 will be in the new course of studies. For Collateral Reading, see Directions and Helps.

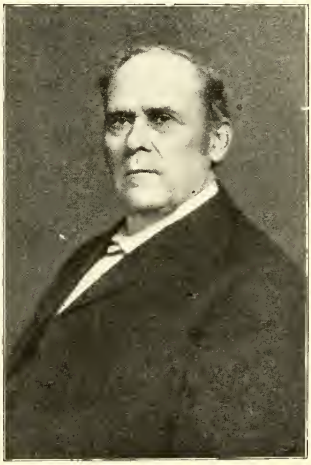
(XII) Memoirs.

REV. RICHARD CLAY JONES.

Rev. Richard Clay Jones, eldest son of James and Kezia Ayers Jones, was born in the northern part of Caroline County, Maryland, September 25, 1844, and answered the summons to his heavenly reward at Oxford Retreat, Ohio, May 13, 1921, at the advanced age of nearly seventy-seven years.

His early school advantages were confined to the instruction given in a country school. His boyish mind craved knowledge beyond that which was afforded by the narrow curriculum of the common school. He gave much time outside of school to the study of philosophy, and physical and mental science. The habit of study which went with him throughout his life was formed in those early days.



Rev. Richard Clay Jones

At the age of eighteen he enlisted in the service of his country and became a member of the First Eastern Shore of Maryland Infantry. He served in his regiment from October 1, 1862, to October 7, 1864. He was then transferred to the Eleventh Maryland Infantry, with which he continued until the close of the war. He became a corporal in the latter regiment. He was asked by the adjutant to take the chaplaincy of this regiment, but, because he could not make arrangements for proper ordination, was compelled to refuse the offer.

He was in the great battle of Gettysburg, and in a little life sketch he has this to say: "We were on the field on the second but were not actively engaged until the third, and from early morning until nearly noon of that day we powerfully assisted in driving Johnson's division from Culp's Hill. My services in the army lasted from October 1, 1862, to June 15, 1865, and was a life of hardship and trial, but I gave it gladly for my country."

On November 5, 1863, Brother Jones married Lida A. Leagey. Of this union six daughters were born, four of whom survive—Glendora Jenkins, Anderson, Indiana; Mary E. Enos, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Ella V. Rhodes, Newark, Delaware; Grace J. Woodward, Lapel. The wife and mother passed to her heavenly home on June 6, 1889, after more than twenty-five years of tender and devoted married life.

Margaret S. Hill, eldest daughter of Rev Charles Hill, of the Wilmington Conference, became his second wife, June 16, 1891. She was a devoted Christian woman and most effective in her work. During their pastorate at Lagrange she was stricken with cancer, and for months endured indescribable suffering, but she triumphed through a faith that was marvelous, and on June 28, 1902, she went home with the declaration on her lips that nothing could separate them from the love of Christ.

October 16, 1905, he and Mrs. Cynthia Paullin, of Middletown, Indiana, were united in marriage. For nearly sixteen years they walked together and shared the trials, discouragements, and burdens as well as the successes, the joys and the victories of an itinerant ministry. It seems an act of Providence that one so kind, so tender, so sympathetic, so patient, so willing to give herself in sacrifice and service should be chosen to minister to our brother during those months when cloud and mental gloom had settled upon his life. May heaven's promise be fulfilled to her.

Brother Jones' religious experience began in a camp meeting which was held near his boyhood home in 1860. He says in his life sketch that his army life at first was so full of new and untried experiences that he fell away for a time. But, he says after a week of earnest prayer, in his tent, the Holy Spirit renewed his heart and he rejoiced with joy and gladness. The he says, "In 1870 I made a full consecration of of my heart and life to God and received a sweet and precious blessing of perfect love."

He was licensed to exhort soon after he came from the army. Soon he became class leader and Sunday-school superintendent. In 1870, he was licensed to preach and given work on a circuit as assistant pastor. In 1871, he found himself in charge of a circuit of nine churches with an estimated salary of $400. In 1872, he joined the Wilmington Conference on trial. He was then appointed to another large circuit with a salary of $380 for the support of a family of four. Up to this time he had no horse and tramped his circuits, covering distances from twelve to sixteen miles each Sunday, and preaching from two to three times. Finally he was sent to Gamboro, Delaware, where his salary was $600. There he felt able to purchase a horse and carriage and a better day financially began to dawn for him. He then served in succession, Onancock, Virginia; Princess Anne Circuit, Maryland; Bridgeville, Delaware; Port Deposit, Maryland. In 1885 he was sent to Mt. Salem, Wilmington, Delaware, where he had the crowning victory of all his ministry. At Odessa, Delaware, great sorrow came to him in the death of his wife and mother of his children. His next appointment was Saeford, Delaware. His ministerial labors in the East ended in this church. Here he suffered a nervous breakdown and was compelled to go to the sanitarium at Clifton Springs, New York, for treatment. He remained there eight months and then came to Indiana to visit relatives and recuperate. After a period of rest he felt that he could take light work and was appointed to Anderson Circuit. In April, 1894, he transferred his membership to the North Indiana Conference and served successfully Anderson Circuit, Perkinsville, Lapel, Lagrange, Middletown, Gas City, Simpson, Fort Wayne, Knightstown, and Cambridge City.

He retired from the active ministry in April, 1919, at almost seventy-five years of age. This is a record that few men have approached. His total ministerial life lasted through a period of just fifty years.

Two universities have honored him with degrees. Dickinson College conferred on him the Master of Arts degree, while Taylor University bestowed the degree of Doctor of Divinity.

Brother Jones was a wide reader and a diligent student all of his life. Books on philosophy, astronomy, and mental science were especially attractive to him. There was nothing that he liked to do better than to preach the gospel to men. He was a man of deep convictions and decided views as to right and wrong. He had unfaltering courage in the expression of his convictions. Sometimes he seemed harsh and intolerant with people who did not see as he saw. But usually his honesty was so apparent, his sincerity so genuine, and his motive so clear, that few were offended even though they did feel the sting of his words. He was a man of much prayer and of simple and unbounded faith in God.

Two of the family in which he grew up survive him—a brother, Walter Jones, of San Diego, California; and a sister, Mrs. Ella Hertz, of Long Beach, California.

There are eleven granchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The funeral services were held from Brother Jones's late residence in Knightstown, Indiana, May, 1921. The funeral sermon was delivered by Rev. C. U. Wade. Dr. Somerville Light made a short address. A brief service was held at the Lapel Methodist Church, at which Dr. Beatty, Dr. J. H. Palmer, and others spoke. Interment was made in the Lapel cemetery. A number of the neighboring pastors were present at both services.

MRS. EDITH JACKSON FISHER.

When, on the fifth of June, 1921, there flashed over the continents of the world the message, "Edith Jackson Fisher is dead," Methodists stopped, their eyes filled with tears, and they offered a prayer to God to sustain her husband, Bishop Frederick B. Fisher, the youngest bishop in the great church.

Edith, youngest daughter of Andrew and Elizabeth Jackson, was born in Greencastle, Indiana, May 12, 1880. She is survived by her aged father and mother; two sisters—Miss Lillian Jackson, of Hingham, Massachusetts, and Mrs. Laura Mullinix, of Horton, Kansas; and two brothers—Frank Jackson, of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Fred O. Jackson, of San Diego, California.

In 1898, she graduated from the Muncie High School, and, later, from the New England Conservatory of Music at Boston, Massachusetts, as an accomplished artist on the piano and pipe organ. Upon completing her studies in music she returned to her home in Indiana, and on the fourth day of February, 1903, was married to Frederick B. Fisher, he having graduated from college that same year. He entered the North Indiana Conference and was stationed at Kokomo, where he held a very successful pastorate.

Mrs. Edith Jackson Fisher

When she was about nine years old she heard an address from a missionary from India. Running home, she said to her parents, that when she grew up she intended to become a missionary to India. That impression never left her. Many members of the North Indiana Conference will never forget the session of 1904, held in Muncie. The impassioned appeal of Bishop Warne for missionaries for India was followed by a night of struggle and prayer on the part of Brother and Sister Fisher. Each, alone with God, settled the matter as an individual. The next morning when, in the presence of the Conference, this young couple volunteered to go to India, the Conference broke loose in an emotional enthusiasm that is seldom seen, and followed it up by the members pledging financial support of them. They soon left for India, but at an unfortunate time in the year, for the heat was so intense that the health of Sister Fisher soon gave way and they were compelled to return to the homeland. For several years the illness clung to her, and it seemed impossible for them to return to their work. They were, however, enabled to make a tour of inspection of the mission fields in India, spending the winter there during 1917 and 1918.

At the General Conference of 1920 her husband was elected to the Episcopacy and assigned to the Calcutta Area. They arrived in India November 25, 1920, so that the last stay of Sister Fisher was but little in excess of six months.. But they were six months of glorious service, and then eternal glory. She had eagerly and enthusiastically entered into the work of the Calcutta Area. She had visited Burma with her husband and his party for the session of the Conference, and had won the hearts of all the members of the Conference, both missionaries and preachers.

The following extracts are from the pen of Bishop Smith: "At Ida Villa, her summer home in Darjeeling, it was evident to all that she was eager to make her home the center of a helpful and heartening community life. It was to be a home in which her gracious courtesy and open-handed hospitality would forward the work of the Master by strengthening the bonds of friendship and brotherhood and establishing an esprit de corps which would make all the leaders of Calcutta Area a unit in cooperation in Christlike activity.

"The last month of her life was filled with the loving plans of a beautiful soul, endeavoring to interpret her conception of her share of her husband's task in a spirit of ministry and service. During this month three notable groups were entertained in her home in the interests of the work of Christ in India. The first group was the bishops of southern Asia, and their wives, in their semi-annual Conference. The second was the cabinet of the Bengal Conference, who were in session five days, during which time patient and careful attention was given to every problem. The third group was composed of nine of the outstanding Indian leaders in the Indian Methodist Episcopal Church. . . . It was during this week that Mrs. Fisher was stricken with a very malignant and almost universally fatal form of influenza which has been prevalent in and near Darjeeling this season. From the first her condition was serious. Every effort possible was put forth, the physician was constantly by her side, two capable nurses rendered all assistance possible, but all in vain. For, when the high fever yielded, pneumonia set in which proved too much for the weakened condition of the body. She was delirious much of the time with occasional flashes of consciousness. Finally, with a beautiful smile at her broken-hearted husband and friends, and murmuring over and over his pet name on her lips, she slipped away from us at 3 A. M., Sunday, June 5, 1921, the seventeenth anniversary of their departure from America to India as a young missionary.

Bishop and Mrs. Smith, who had been house guests of Bishop and Mrs. Fisher during the season, were present during the entire time. Bishop Smith took charge of the services, both at Darjeeling and Calcutta. The service at Darjeeling was attended by the missionaries and friends in the station. The Calcutta services were held in the Thoburn Church on Thursday, June 9, at 5 P. M. Bishop Smith was assisted by Bishops F. W. Warne and J. W. Robinson, and several ministers and missionaries. The flowers were wonderful in their profusion and beauty. There were between seventy-five and one hundred set pieces besides numerous sprays and bouquets. The American counsul-general for India and Burma was among the mourners and brought the official American flag of the consulate for the casket. In the cemetery nearby, under a great mound of flowers which covered the entire vault, the body of Edith Jackson Fisher was laid to rest.

Mrs. Fisher's will has thrown new light on the depth of her devotion to India. She left an endowment scholarship for Isabella Thoburn College. This scholarship will send worthy young women of India to the United States for post-graduate work. She quietly, without any one knowing anything about it, saved the money through many years of personal economy. Already, through the desire of Bishop Fisher, the money is made available for its purpose.

REV. SILAS L. CATES.

Silas Louis Cates was born near Williamsburg, Wayne County, Indiana, Febrauary 14, 1883. After graduation from high school, he engaged in teaching for a few years. Feeling the call to the ministry, he prepared for the work by attending DePauw University and Garrett Biblical Institute. In the spring of 1903, he was was admitted on trial in the North Indiana Conference, and served the following charges while a member of this Conference: Hillisburg; North Street, Kokomo; Cody, Wyoming; Topeka; Nappanee; Greenfield; Newcastle.

Rev. Silas L. Cates

He was united in marriage to Miss Lulu Gawthrop, of Milford, Indiana, April 18, 1905. To this union two lovely daughters, Lucille and Mabel, were born.

During his first year at Newcastle, failing health compelled him to give up his work and to seek a change of climate. The family moved to Colorado, where he gained strength. Later he was transferred to the Colorado Conference and appointed to the pastorate of the University Park Church in Denver. After a successful pastorate of three years in that important college church, he was again overcome by failing health which resulted in months of protracted illness.

At the session of the North Indiana Conference one year ago, he was transferred back to the Conference and granted the retired relation. This unusual action on the part of his old home Conference indicated the high esteem in which he was held by the brethren of this Conference.

On the morning of June 24, 1921, at his home in Denver, he passed peacefully into the life that knows no weariness of the flesh, and where his gentle, gracious spirit became clothed upon with immortal strength. Brief memorial services were held in the home conducted by Dr. O. W. Auman, superintendent of the Denver district. A number of the ministers of the city came to express their appreciation of a brother greatly beloved. The body was brought to the old home church at Williamsburg, where the service was in charge of Dr. Somerville Light, who gave the funeral address. Several pastors of the Conference were present and assisted in the service The body was buried in the Mt. Zion Cemetery, Williamsburg, Indiana.

Silas L. Cates was a capable preacher, a successful pastor, and an efficient administrator of Kingdom affairs. Those who knew him in Colorado, as in Indiana, saw in him a prince among men and a saint among Christians. And as always becometh true piety, he did not know that he was good. Humble in success, patient in tribulation, his generous spirit was always given to hospitality. In all his charges he won the confidence and the affection of the people to a degree that was unusual. They recognized his gifts and genuineness, and they gave him their hearts. His ministry was not long in years, but it was fruitful in good works and rich in results that abide. God's work he did; God's truth he taught; God's children he helped; with God he dwells.

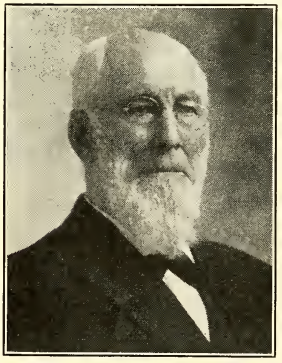
REV. S. C. MILLER.

Samuel C. Miller, son of Robert and Rebecca Miller, was born at Connersville, Indiana, December 28, 1830, and died at his home on the Peru and Paw Paw Pike, Miami County, August 11, 1921, after a lingering illness of several years due to general debility. He, with his parents, in 1837, moved to the neighborhood in which he died, and where he grew to manhood.

After completing the schools in his home community, he entered Asbury College, now DePauw University. He later attended Lima College, now Syracuse University, where he graduated in 1859. June 29, of the same year, he was united in marriage to Miss Susan E. Beswick. To this union four children were born: Mrs. Amos Long, of Chili, Indiana; Mrs. Joseph Elliott, of Wabash, Indiana; Edward B., of the home place; and Laura, who died in 1900.

In 1861, he moved to the state of Iowa, and after a period of four years returned to Indiana to teach school. He taught at New Carlisle, Marion, and Wabash, acting as principal of the schools at Wabash and Marion.

He entered the North Indiana Conference in 1867. He was in the active ministry for ten years. Then, because of ill health, he took a supernumerary relation, which relation continued until 1898, when he was granted a retired relation, in which he continued until he was taken to the Church Triumphant. Brother Miller was a believer in the gospel of Jesus Christ, and he did not hesitate to preach it with all the energy he had. There was no element of compromise in him. He was preeminent as a teacher of adults and Sunday-school Bible classes.



Rev. S. C. Miller

After quitting the ministry, he moved onto his home farm, where he spent his remaining years, retaining an active interest not only in the affairs of his home church, but in the work of the church in general. One of the hardest crosses that came to him to bear was that of being deprived of attendance at the sessions of the Annual Conference during the last few years, on account of ill health.

"His was a life of service, unquestionably a servant of the Most High God. While he is no longer with us, his spirit has received its reward. Yes, he has gone from us; we would not have it otherwise. For in the presence of his Saviour and Lord, in the land of peace which all in glory find, he now is reaping his reward. And we are sure he's more than satisfied."

The funeral services were conducted in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Paw Paw near his old home and where he attended services so many years, August 13, 1921, in charge of Rev. F. A. Hall, district superintendent. The music was furnished by a quartet of ministers of the Conference, F. F. Thornburg, F. E. Fribley, J. F. Seelig, and R. C. Plank, who sang several beautiful sacred selections. D. V. Williams, intimate friend and former neighbor, read the Ninetieth Psalm. The pastor, C. A. Byrt, read Rev. 7. 9-17 as the New Testament lesson. Prayer was offered by B. S. Hollopeter. T. M. Guild read the memoir. L. M. Krider delivered the funeral sermon, Job 14. 14. The funeral services were attended by fifteen members of the Conference. After the services the body was buried in the cemetery adjoining the church yard. He is survived by the wife of his youth and the three children mentioned, who have the great comfort of his abiding faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.

MRS. MARY FLORENCE WALKER.

Mrs. Mary Florence Walker, nee Morrison, died August 13, 1921, in Indianapolis, Indiana.

She was born in Greencastle, Indiana, September 6, 1850. Her mother was the daughter of the Rev. Daniel DeMotte, one of the heroic pioneer Methodist preachers of Indiana. Her father, Colonel A. L. Morrison, was a soldier in both the Mexican and Civil Wars. Flora was the oldest daughter in a large family, and so shared with her mother much of the care and responsibility in the home. She was converted when a girl of ten and from that time was a loyal disciple. In addition to the advantages she enjoyed as a student in Greencastle, she spent some time in the Indiana Female College, in Indianapolis.

Mrs. Mary Florence Walker

In the nineteenth year of her age (April 21, 1869) she was married to Rev. Wilbur Fisk Walker, who had graduated from Indiana Asbury University, in the class of 1868, and had just been admitted to the North Indiana Conference on trial. Their first appointment was Centenary, now Simpson Church, Fort Wayne, Indiana. For a little more than four years they were in the work, serving in Fort Wayne, Winchester, and Peru.

At the session of the Conference in 1873, Dr. Dashiell, missionary secretary of our church, made an earnest appeal for volunteers for China, and her husband offered himself and was accepted. This decision caused Mrs. Walker a great struggle and deep sorrow. The breaking of home, church, and social ties was a cross she found very heavy; but grace abounded, and when she reached the mission field her heart quickly responded to the call and she became at once deeply enlisted in the work. Her sympathies were aroused by the troubles and sorrows which greeted her on every side, and she was Lady Bountiful with a helping hand at every opportunity. Her China home was one of open hospitality; she loved to entertain the friends of her own and other missions, her many Chinese friends, student boys and girls; Chinese preachers, and not a few friends outside the mission circle. To one and all she was an outspoken witness for the truth and the cause of missions. She was deeply interested especially in the work for women and girls and ever ready to do all she could to advance the interests of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

In her missionary experience of thirty-one years she passed through some unusual scenes. In the spring of 1900, after a stay in the homeland, she, with her husband and daughter Joyce, returned to China just in time to get caught in the Boxer uprising in which so many native Christians lost their lives, and a large number of missionaries died as martyrs. Though naturally timid she passed through the siege in Peking with a heroism that was an amazement to her friends. Her missionary life was about equally divided between Peking and Tienstsin. In the latter place, in addition to regular missionary work, she did a great work among the Europeans and American sailors and soldiers who were in port.

Many a young man, through the meetings she held in her home, found his way back from sin to his Father's house.

In her journeyings she crossed the Pacific seven times, and in her final return to the United States, completed the circuit of the globe, touching at Saigon, in Tonquin; Columbo, on the island of Ceylon; the coast of Africa; through the Red Sea and Suez; across the Mediterranean; through France; in Paris; in London; over the Atlantic; and home.

After her final return to the States she was in great demand as a speaker in the interest of Foreign Missions. Hers was a thrilling message and she loved to tell the story of Jesus and his love. She was also very faithful to all the privileges of the church. The last public duty was to attend prayer meeting in her own church and from which she came home ill with the illness which terminated in her death.

When she went to her coronation she left the heritage of a beautiful life as an inspiration to her husband, four sons—Guy M., of New York; Merle N. A., and Bertram F., of Indianapolis; and two daughters—F. Grace, city librarian at Kankakee, Illinois; and Joyce E., a missionary in China; and one son a business man, O. D., also in China.

Her funeral was held, August 16, 1922, in the church where she had been a member so long. Dr. W. L. Ewing, her pastor, was in charge. Dr. M. S. Marble, of the North Indiana Conference, read a Scripture lesson. Dr. M. B. Hyde, of the Indiana Conference led in prayer. Mrs. Binford, secretary of the North Indiana Conference Woman's Foreign Missionary Society; Dr. S. B. Town, of the Northwest Indiana Conference; and her pastor, paid tribute to her memory, after which her body was laid to rest in Crown Hill Cemetery, Indianapolis, Indiana, while her triumphant spirit dwells in her Father's house above.

REV. EZRA FRANKLIN HASTY.

Rev. Ezra Franklin Hasty was born November 14, 1834, in Preble County, Ohio, near Richmond, Indiana. He came to his crowning in Minneapolis, Minnesota, at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. Charles H. Briggs, August 16, 1921, at the age of eighty-six years, nine months, and two days. Here he received the tenderest care, which was supplemented by the love and affection of his only daughter, Mrs. Elma Hasty Gamble.

He was the son of Rev. John and Elma Shith Hasty, his father being a member of the Cincinnati Conference and in the same class with Bishops Hamline and Thompson.

He was left motherless when but two years of age and his father died two years later, leaving him in the care of his mother's people, who were Quakers. His early education was received in Richmond, Indiana, and later at Asbury University, in Greencastle.

He was united in marriage to Caroline Amelia Allen, March 25, 1861. Theirs was a happy home, his wife being a rare helpmeet in advancing the work of the Kingdom in every charge they served. Three children consumated the marriage relation: Elma H. Gamble, of Evanston, Illinois; Allen, who died in 1917; and Wilbur Mitchel, who died in 1868.

Rev. Ezra Franklin Hasty

He was converted in early life and soon received a call to preach the gospel, to which he responded and has given the church a long and useful service. With the single exception of Brother C. E. Disbro, who is a classmate, he was the senior member of our Conference, becoming a member in 1859. He soon took first rank in the Conference, which he held for many years, being appointed to some of the most prominent charges such as Huntington, Warsaw, Goshen, Marion, Mishawaka, Richmond, High Street (Muncie), and presiding elder of Muncie District. He was also general secretary of the Preachers' Aid Society for fourteen years.

The Methodist Episcopal Church and North Indiana Conference has lost one of its leaders. He lived a life that was above reproach, and hated sin as I think God wants a man to hate it. Brother Hasty was modest, refined, keen eyed, alert, deeply pious, but devoid of cant or gush. He was an illuminating preacher of the Word and led many souls into the Kingdom.

Brother Hasty's last days were days of real spiritual triumph. The nearer he came to the opening gate the clearer was his vision. He frequently called for the reading of the Word which he had so faithfully preached. He expressed his love for the brethren of the Conference and had an eager desire to hear from them. His faith took wings and gave him peeps into heaven which was soon to become a reality.

Funeral services were held in High Street Church, Muncie, August 19, conducted by J. A. Beatty, district superintendent, assisted by W. W. Wiant, J. A. Ruley, E. B. Westhafer, and other brethren of the Conference. His body was laid to rest in Beach Grove Cemetery beside the companion of his youth.

*MRS. SARAH R. ANDERSON.

Sarah R. Anderson, daughter of John and Martha Roberts, was born December 23, 1834, near Richmond, Indiana, and departed this life at her home in Greenfield, October 4, 1921.

Early in her life her father moved near Wabash, Indiana. Here, on September 6, 1855, she was married to Rev. Wm. Anderson, of the North Indiana Conference, with whom she spent twenty-five years of active service in the ministry.

She is survived by two daughters, Martha White and Grace A. Stewart, two daughters having preceded her in death.

She was an invalid for more than two years, during which time her daughter Grace was her constant companion, giving of her strength and love.

She was converted early in life and never wavered from the faith. Unselfish and loving, her life was a constant benediction to all with whom she came in contact.

The funeral services were held at the home in charge of the pastor, H. S. Nickerson, assisted by Dr. Somerville Light. Interment was made in Park Cemetery, Greenfield.

REV. JOSEPH M. HAINES.

Joseph Milton Haines was born at Shadesville, Ohio, October 12, 1855. He was the son of Joseph and Isabel Haines. His parents were members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, his father being a class leader in the church to which he belonged.

Rev. Joseph M. Haines

In 1869, the family moved to Indiana and settled on a farm about five miles west of Warsaw. Here Brother Haines became a member of Cook's Chapel Church, and remained connected with this church until he was licensed to preach.

He was married in 1880 to Miss Clara Garvin. Three children were born to them, all of them, together with their mother, are still living.

After finishing the high-school course in the schools at Warsaw, Brother Haines taught school for a number of years. He then took up farming. In 1887, he was admitted on trial in the North Indiana Conference. Soon after entering upon the work of the ministry he began a correspondence course, which in due time he finished, receiving the degree of Ph.D.

After taking the supernumary relation in 1915 Brother Haines took up his residence in Warsaw, where he has since had his home. It was while on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. T. C. Flick, at East Liverpool, Ohio, that he was taken critically ill and passed from this life November 5, 1921. A brief funeral service was held at the home of his daughter, attended by the Methodist Episcopal ministers of the city. His body was then brought to Warsaw where final service in his memory was held at First Church. The service was in charge of the pastor, C. B. Croxall. David Wells read the Scripture lesson. J. S. Cain offered prayer. J. B. Cook spoke of Brother Haines as he had known him as a boy, both of them having grown up in the same neighborhood. A. J. Cary had once been his pastor and so spoke of him; E. L. Semans told of his acquaintanceship with him while he was his district superintendent; the Rev. Grant Pence, pastor of the United Brethren Church, at Burkett, who had studied under Brother Haines in preparation for the ministry, offered the closing prayer. Six of the members of the Conference acted as pallbearers. His body was buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Warsaw.

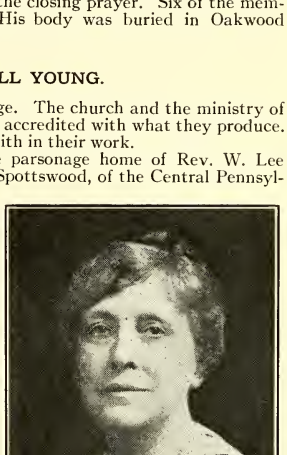
MRS. LUCY MINSHALL YOUNG.

The highest credential of a life is its fruitage. The church and the ministry of our Lord Jesus Christ are perfectly willing to be accredited with what they produce. The lives they give to the world warrant their faith in their work.

In Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, into the parsonage home of Rev. W. Lee Spottswood, D.D., and his wife, Mrs. Lucy A. Spottswood, of the Central Pennsylvania Conference, there came a daughter on November 1, 1846, whom they named Lucy Minshall Spottswood. This daughter grew into womanhood and became one of the noted characters of Methodism. She was well born and well bred and had the inspiration of refined and cultured parents, both of whom were writers of note and power in Methodism for many years.



Mrs. Lucy Minshall Young

December 22, 1870, she was married Jesse Bowman Young, a patriot, scholarly and refined Christian editor, a writer of note, and a man of continental influence. By nature, refinement, and taste their lives were in a preeminent degree complementary to each other. From the union of such lives we have a right to expect great things. In this we are not disappointed, for to them were born five children, all of whom are still living: Jared W. Young, Chicago, Illinois; Anne Spottswood Young, Coronado, California; Mrs. Dwight Earl Easley, Phoenix, Arizona; Lucy Minshall Young, Coronado, California; and Mrs. F. W. Snyder, Tularosa, New Mexico.

The home life was always marvelously happy. No family of children ever had a more appreciated and deeply loved and ideal home life than that of her children. For years it was their custom to come together at Christmastime at the home, wherever that was. In the home they were always in touch with the best and greatest in Methodism, from the time they were babies. Mrs. Young won and held friends from coast to coast. Her disposition, her charm and her beauty, her prowess as a hostess and homemaker, won every one. The mother lived long enough to see her children win for themselves places of note and influence in the world. Mrs. Snyder was Helen Minshall Young for several years on the editorial staff of the Christian Advocate; Anne Spottswood Young was for some time on the editorial staff of the Sunday-school publications, and since that time a magazine writer of note.

The death of her husband in 1914 was such a shock to her sensitive nature that she became a semi-invalid. She later rallied somewhat, but finally, pernicious anemia set in from the effects of which she never recovered, although receiving all the care and attention that the love, prayers, and devotion of her daughters could give her, they were unable to save her, although they did doubtless prolong her wonderful life.

The closing days of her life were made bright by the constant care and devotion of her two daughters at home, Lucy and Anne, who lavished upon her all that love and devotion could produce. In her last hours she had the solace of the arrival of her daughters, Mrs. Easley, Mrs. Snyder and her babies, and son-in-law Mr.

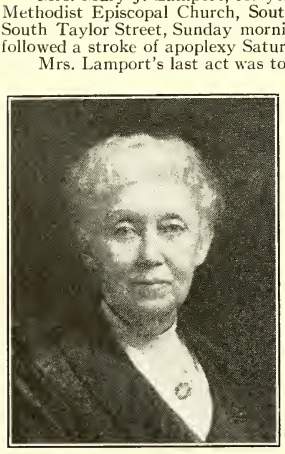
Easley. She quietly passed away on November 19, 1921, at the age of seventy-five years and nineteen days. She was mother to the last; her courage, faith, and even her rippling sense of humor, which helped her over many difficulties, were sufficient to help the loved ones as the last hours came.

The funeral services were held in the beautiful chapel of Johnson and Saum, San Diego, and were in charge of Rev. E. B. Service. Immediately thereafter the body was sent to Berwick, Pennsylvania, where the only son, who was unable to reach the bedside of his mother before her death, was waiting for her. A second service was held in the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. John W. Evans, in charge of Rev. E. L. Eslinger and Rev. R. H. Gilbert. The body was buried by the side of that of her husband in the Pine Grove Cemetery at Berwick, Pennsylvania.

MRS. MARY J. LAMPORT.

Mrs. Mary J. Lamport, for years one of the most active workers in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, South Bend, Ind., died suddenly at her home, 228 South Taylor Street, Sunday morning, November 20, 1921, at 8.30 o'clock. Death followed a stroke of apoplexy Saturday night.

Mrs. Lamport's last act was to prepare for her Sunday-school class, composed of some of South Bend's most prominent elderly women. For years she had taught this class, besides being active in other church functions. The class had a record of an average attendance of twenty throughout all seasons of the year.



Mrs. Mary J. Lamport

Born in Ashland County, Ohio, January 16, 1849, Mrs. Lamport, with her parents, came to Steuben County, Indiana, where May 27, 1875, she married Rev. H. M. Lamport, years ago known throughout the state as one of the strong ministers in the Methodist faith.

Mr. Lamport was killed in a railroad accident at Osceola, Indiana, in 1892. From that time, besides bringing up three children, the oldest of which was thirteen years old, Mrs. Lamport carried on the work which she had been doing with her husband. At Freemont, Butler, Bristol, Auburn, Kendallville, and Ligonier, Mr. and Mrs. Lamport had assisted in building up the Methodist parishes. Mrs. Lamport always maintained an interest in the work of these cities, though in later years, when she moved to South Bend, her greatest work was confined to this locality.

Mrs. Lamport is survived by three children: W. K. Lamport, president of the Lamport-MacDonald Company, South Bend; Miss Adelaide Lamport; and Mrs D. E. Dubail; four grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Ellsworth Carey, of near Edon, Ohio; and a sister-in-law, Mrs. W. S. Buck, of South Bend.

Funeral services were held at the home, Tuesday afternoon, November 22, 1921, at two o'clock, Rev. A. E. Monger, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church officiating. Burial was in the Mishawaka city cemetery. Pall-bearers were E. B. Rupel, E. F. Abernethy, F. R. Stretch, C. B. Pollock, H. R. Garn, and A. H. Tyler.

REV. BERT E. JONES.

The subject of this sketch, Rev. Bert E. Jones, son of Granville and Elizabeth Jones, was born near Winchester, Randolph County, Indiana, May 4, 1876, and died at New Burlington, Delaware County, Indiana, January 10, 1922. Age, forty-five years, seven months, and six days.

At the age of twenty-one he was converted under the preaching of Rev. Paddock, of the United Brethren Church, and soon after his conversion he felt the call to preach the gospel and began to prepare himself for the sacred calling.

He graduated in the high school at Winchester and had three terms at Taylor University.

He entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the North Indiana Conference in the spring of 1907, and was appointed to Ingalls charge, and has served acceptably the following charges: Ingalls, two years; Joliettville, three years; Alexandria Circuit, two years; Perkinsville, four years; and New Burlington, three years and nine months.

Brother Jones was a good pastor. No day too warm, or night so dark, cold or rainy, but what this man of God was ready to go at the call of his people.

He was also a faithful gospel preacher, and many gracious revivals attended his ministry on these charges.

His sudden death, due to a week's illness with pneumonia, was a shock to the whole community. He made a brave fight for life to the last, then spoke comfortingly to his wife and children, and was not for God had taken him.

He was married to Miss Maud Gillam, April 7, 1903. To this union was given four children, namely: Keith, fifteen years; Robert, eleven years; Rachel, four years; and Warren, ten months.

These children, with the devoted wife and mother, will greatly miss the guiding hand of the head of the family. But the presence of the Saviour, the prayers of a devoted people, and a loyal and sympathetic ministry will attend them.

Other surviving members of the family are his parents and Mrs. Granville Jones, of Modoc; four sisters, Mrs. Hugh Chamness, Mrs. John Roberts, Mrs. Bernie Walker, and Miss Olive Jones; and one brother, Hallie Jones.

In the home life of Brother Jones he was tender and affectionate, often speaking of his parents and expressed a desire to have his mother with him in death. This desire was granted.

Rev. Bert E. Jones

May God give us all to-day, grace to look away from our grief to the meeting, the greeting, and the song on the other shore, and say with the poet:

Jesus, while our hearts are bleeding,
Oe'r the spoils death hath won,
We would at this solemn meeting
Calmly say, Thy will be done.

By thy hand the boon was given,
Thou hast taken but thine own,
Lord of earth, and God of heaven,
Evermore, Thy will be done.

His funeral services were conducted at the New Burlington church on Thursday morning, January 12, by Dr. J. A. Beatty, superintendent of Muncie District. About twenty-five of the members of the Conference were present, gathered about the casket, and sang the first two stanzas of "My Faith Looks Up to Thee."

The choir sang "Asleep in Jesus." The first Scripture lesson was read by P. E. Greenwalt, Ninetieth Psalm; the second, by R. A. Morrison, 1 Cor. 15. 41-49, 53-58. Prayer was offered by Rev. H. D. Ketcham. The obituary was read by J. A. Ruley. A paper was read by Mrs. Addie Dragoo, "Statement of Brother Jones' life among the people of the charge," an appreciation of his work.

The following ministers spoke: J. W. Gibson, Herbert Perry, E. B. Westhafer, and H. E. Forbes. Dr. James A Beatty, who was in charge of the services, made a brief address.

Professor Clark and Miss Sells sang "Jesus Saviour, Pilot Me," and "In the Sweet Bye and Bye."

The choir sang "Does Jesus Care?"

The house did not accommodate near all the people. There were many floral tributes. Every charge he had served during his ministry was represented by people to whom he had preached. It was a very impressive funeral service.

His remains were taken to the cemetery at Losantville, Indiana, where they were buried. Rev. J. A. Ruley had charge of the service at the cemetery, and was assisted by Herbert Perry.

MRS. JOSEPHINE BENTLEY.

Josephine Bentley was born in Bloomington, Indiana, in 1871. She was born in the Kingdom of grace in Greencastle, Indiana. She was translated to the Glory World from Anderson, Indiana, on February 7, 1922.

Mrs. Bentley spent her childhood in Greencastle. Here she graduated from the public schools and shared the honors of the class with Mrs. Harry Maxwell. She taught English in the high school after her graduation. In 1896 she graduated from DePauw University.

Mrs. Josephine Bentley

On the thirtieth of December, 1897, she married Rev. L. C. Bentley, a member of the Northwest Indiana Conference. He was then stationed at Williamsport. After two years of delightful service, they were appointed to Brazil for six years. In the fall of 1905 they were transferred to the Broadway Church, of Indianapolis. At the close of a four-year pastorate they were appointed to the service of the Indianapolis District. At the close of a six-year term they were assigned to First Church, Vincennes. Six years was spent there, when they were transferred to Anderson.

To their home was given two children: a son, Gerald Eads Bentley, who is a junior in DePauw; and a daughter, Mary Josephine, who is a senior in the Anderson High School.

Mrs. Bentley's people were members of the Christian Church. In this faith she was reared. From early life she was a worker in the church. Her spiritual life was greatly enriched at a Methodist altar, which church she joined before marriage.

Her life was greatly strengthened by her early estimate of the church. Before judgment was mature she concluded what the church advises I will do. What it condemns I will shun. This belief in maturing life laid the solid foundation for a beautiful character.

Mrs. Bentley was a student all of her life. She was a great reader of the best literature. Her public life in the church was given largely to the women's work: the Home and Foreign Missionary Societies, the Standard Bearers, and the Queen Esthers. She was a tireless worker among the young people. Her greatest pleasure was in Bible teaching, in which she excelled. In public addresses she was direct, earnest, and didactic, and often pressed to speak but always excused herself when possible, feeling this was not her work.

Her nature was sincere, her spirit was devout, her faith triumphant, and her character resplendent. Her death though sudden, was long expected and her preparation was perfect.

The funeral services for Sister Bentley were conducted in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Anderson, Indiana, February 9, 1922.

Ministers who participated in the service were the Rev. J. A. Beatty, superintendent of Muncie District; the Rev. C. E. Bacon, superintendent of the Indianapolis District; John W. Potter, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, at Fort Wayne; the Rev. J. W. McFall, of Connersville; and E. J. Wickersham, of Anderson. Several universities and colleges were represented by members of the faculty and student friends of the family.

The funeral body left her late home at noon for Greencastle, where the burial was held. The Rev. Salem B. Towne, of Greencastle, conducted the services at the grave.

MRS. LONA IVA PITTENGER.

Lona Iva Arbogast, third child of Robert Sprole and Leah Philena Arbogast, was born near Selma, Indiana, September 15, 1886, and departed this life February 11, 1922, aged thirty-five years, four months, and twenty-seven days.

She was a graduate of the Muncie High School and a student of DePauw University, and fitted herself for a teacher, which position she held until she was married to Earl Pittenger, May 13, 1910.

In her youth, under the ministry of B. S. Hollopeter, she was converted and stated in her first testimony that she had given her heart to God in answer to her mother's prayers. Early in her Christian life she took up active service as a superintendent of the Junior League and a Sunday-school teacher. She earnestly sought to familiarize herself with every phase of the church's program and to fit herself for service.

She frequently expressed the desire to do foreign missionary work, but accepted her position of a wife of a Methodist pastor and that of motherhood with love and joy, and was ever alert to do the service at hand. She unselfishly kept in the foreground the larger interests of their tasks at considerable personal sacrifice. Repeatedly she urged that plans be revised and opportunities be grasped for advanced preparation so that their lives be broader and deeper and their service more far-reaching. It was in this spirit that she inspired Earl to take advanced training in the Boston Theological School, and that she sent him, with her blessing, to serve the soldier boys overseas for eighteen months.

In the parsonage and in the parish she filled to a wonderful fullness the position of a minister's wife. Carefully and prayerfully she watched both minister and people and with sincere love and loyalty for each she kept them together with a strategy born of true Christlike devotion and insight.

She served with Earl in the following parishes: Park Place, Anderson; Westfield, Normal City; Lowell, Massachusetts; Middletown, Jonesboro, and Elkhart.

She is the mother of four boys, Sanford, John, Rex, and Robert. In no role was Lona's life more beautiful. Her attention to her children was constant, her ideals for them noble, and devotion unbounded.

Besides her little family, her mother, a brother, and a sister, she leaves behind a large circle of relatives and a host of friends to mourn their loss.

The last days of her life on earth were days of great suffering and pain. Following an operation for appendicitis, influenza set in, which found her in such a weakened condition of body that she was unable to withstand the virulence of the attack, and after a brief period of suffering passed from us, February 11, at 12.30 P. M., to await our coming.

Mrs. Lona Iva Pittenger

A brief funeral service was held at Elkhart, February 13, in charge of Rev. A. G. Neal, district superintendent, which was attended by fifteen members of the Conference, besides a very large number of friends and members of the church.

The funeral services proper were held at Selma, her former home, February 14, at 1.30 P. M. The Scripture lessons were by D. V. Williams, former pastor; and E. B. Westhafer, pastor of the home church. Prayer was offered by J. A. Beatty, district superintendent of Muncie District. The Normal City Church quartette furnished the music for the funeral. A. G. Neal delivered the funeral message on the theme, "We shall be crowned as kings and priests of God."

The church was packed to the limit of its capacity with sorrowing friends of the deceased who loved her with more than ordinary love. Twenty-two ministers of the Conference were in attendance at this service. The following ministers acted as pall-bearers. E. E. DeWitt, D. V. Williams, F. A. Shipley, H. E. Forbes, J. O. Hochstedler, and A. J. Armstrong. The body was buried in the Mount Tabor Cemetery, near Muncie, Indiana.

MRS. MARGARET ELLEN CURTIS.

Margaret Ellen Curtis died at her home in Fountain City, February 19, 1922, in her ninety-second year.

She was the youngest child of John and Pemelia McWhinney, and was born December 4, 1830, on a farm three miles east of Richmond, Indiana, moving to Richmond in 1848.

Mrs. Margaret Ellen Curtis

She was married to the Rev. W. E. Curtis, of the North Indiana Conference, on October 25, 1853, who preceded her to the heavenly home in 1905. During her fifty-two years of happy married life there was born to them four daughters and two sons, four of whom have passed to the Better Land. Mrs. Lida Williams and Wm. J. Curtis, with four grandchildren and one great-grandchild remain to mourn the loss of a patient, gentle, and loving mother and grandmother.

Mrs. Curtis joined the Methodist Church at an early age, and for the seventeen years of her husband's ministry she faithfully assisted him in the work of the church, and though of a retiring nature, has always been a true, loyal, and helpful Christian.

For a number of years she has been unable to attend church services, but has sustained a lively interest in all the activities of the work. It has always been a pleasure to visit with her, and almost to the last she maintained her interest in life and the welfare of her family and friends.

The funeral was held in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lida Williams, February 21, 1922, conducted by her pastor, Rev. John F. Blocker. Text, Job 19. 25; John 11. 27; 2 Cor. 15. 57. Subject: The Victory-giving God and the Christian's Victories. Her body was laid to rest in the Earlham Cemetery beside the grave of Rev. W. E. Curtis.

REV. ANDREW S. WOOTON.

Andrew S. Wooton was born in Butler County, Ohio, October 22, 1849, where he spent his boyhood. His father, who died in the service of his country in the Civil War, was of a family of the Friends faith; and his mother, Louisa Conarroe Wooton, who was left to care for the family of children and maintain the home, was of that fine old religious and moral stock that carried her ambitious son, Andrew, to the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal denomination.

He was a young boy apprenticed to an uncle from whom he learned the builder's trade and became an expert brick mason, and later, a building contractor. By dint of hard labor and strict economy, he worked his own way through the Spiceland, Indiana, Academy and became a minister in the church of his own choice, working the entire period of his active ministry in the North Indiana Conference, covering a period of thirty-three years, serving numerous appointments, most of them to the limit of three years. During his pastorate at Russiaville he was married to Martha U. Stevens, of Forest, Indiana. To this union three children were born, Paul, Florence Wooton Nicholas, and Georgine Wooton Roberts. God took the mother many years ago.

Among some of the most important pastorates were, Peru, Auburn, Tipton, Newcastle, Angola, North Manchester, and Sheridan. He came to Greentown in 1905 and served the local church that and the following year. He then removed his family to his farm in Jackson Township, where they lived for three years, thence back to his late home in Grant Street.

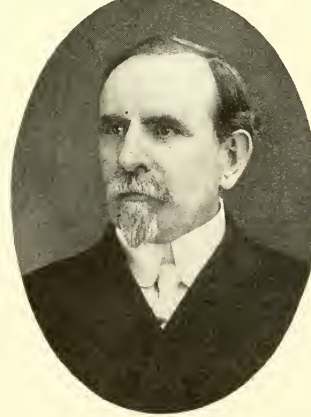
He was married to Miss Cora Dragoo twenty-eight years ago and is survived by her and her two daughters, Margaret and Martha, and by two daughters and a son by a former marriage. He is also survived by his brothers, Isaac, of Fairmount; John, of St. Louis; and Edward, of California; and a sister, Mrs. Samuel Pence, of

New Paris, Ohio. He had been in poor health for almost twenty years, and since his superannuation in 1906, had suffered many attacks of suffering that finally reduced him until the past four weeks, while not regarded by his physician and his family as being necessarily dangerously ill, succumbed suddenly from a violent attack of some terrible stomach malady from which he had so long suffered and passed out to his final end on Wednesday afternoon, March 1, 1922, at 4.30, after an illness of only a few hours. The suddenness and shock of his demise precludes any fair estimate of Brother Wooton as he was affectionately known to us all. That he was a man in all the finer and higher attributes is to but express the unanimous community expression. To have known him was to love and respect him. As a father, husband, pastor, minister, and citizen, he measured up to all the best that was in him. A broad, trained, intellectual Christian example of a true friend, he was always and ever found on the right side, as he had the vision to see it. While gentle, kind, and forbearing, his was a firm conviction when confronted by the problems of righteous and Christian fortitude, and compromised with no evil. He was a ripe student, an inveterate reader, and a polished scholar, ever alert to the progress of the times, and as enthusiastic as a youth in all new things. His presence among us will be missed as it could fall to but few to be missed.

He was that cheerful, amiable disposition which shown out often under physical sufferings and vexing, trying, personal disappointments, as a benediction and a blessing.

The funeral was held at eleven o'clock Saturday morning, March 4, 1922, from the Methodist Episcopal Church, with interment in the I. O. O. F. Cemetery.

A large audience of bereaved friends and relatives were present to pay their last sad respects to their departed friend, relative, and fellow minister. Fifteen ministers of the gospel were present and several spoke on the life of their departed brother. Professor J. A. Abell spoke words of appreciation and worth that Rev. Wooton had been to the community during his residence at this place. He was followed by Rev. C. E. Disbro, Rev. C. H. Brown, Rev. L. M. Krider, Rev. J. L. Gillard, Rev. F. A. Hall, and Rev. J. C. Graham. The above ministers spoke of the worth of the man in church affairs, and what his life meant to the furtherance of God's kingdom. Rev. Brown, who had known Rev. Wooton for years, even before he entered the ministry, giving a personal review of his life as he knew it, and Rev. Hall, now district superintendent, who was pastor of the local church succeeding Rev. Wooton, stated that when pastor here the advice and helping hand of the deceased was an indispensable aid to him during times of trying situations and vexing problems, and that it was the guiding hand of Rev. Wooton that had guided him to the right course. The Scripture lesson was read by Rev. Davies, of Swayzee, and Rev. Frank P. Morris, of Kokomo; and the prayer was offered by Rev. W. T. Arnold, of Kokomo. The closing remarks were made by the local pastor, who had charge of the services. The casket was literally covered with floral offerings presented by friends in token of the high esteem they held the deceased. The services at the grave were ritualistic in nature, Methodist burial ceremonies being used, and were in charge of Rev. J. C. Graham, assisted by Rev. F. A. Hall and C. G. Cook. Rev. F. J. Seelig, of Sims, rendered a beautiful solo at the church services, and the choir furnished the remainder of the music.



Rev. Andrew S. Wooton

The ministers present were, Rev. C. E. Disbro, Rev. F. A. Hall, Rev. W. T. Arnold, Rev. F. P. Morris, Rev. C. H. Brown, and Rev. W. E. Loveless, all of Kokomo; Rev. W. H. Harrison, of Windfall; Rev. F. J. Seelig, of Sims; Rev. Davies, of Swayzee; Rev. E. E. DeWitt, of Converse; Rev. C. G. Cook, of Forest; Rev. L. M. Krider, of Marion; Rev. J. L. Gillard, of Montpelier; and Rev. A. M. Cummins, pastor of the local United Brethren Church; and Rev. J. C. Graham, pastor of the local Methodist Episcopal Church.

Those attending the funeral of Rev. A. S. Wooton from out of town were, Paul and Martha Wooton, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Roberts, of Hays, Kansas; Mr. Isaac Wooton, of Fairmount, Indiana; Rev. Andrew L. Wooton, Finly, Indiana; Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Lukens, and Martha Dragoo, of Indiana Harbor, Indiana; Mrs. Mary E. Clark and Mrs John Babcock, of LaGrange, Indiana; Mr. O. L. Stevens and family, Mr. and Mrs. Vasco Greeson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Gillam, and Mr. Merle Stevens, of Forest, Indiana.

REV. MADISON A. HARLAN.

Rev. Madison A. Harlan was born October 1, 1850, and passed away at his home in Union City, March 4, 1922, after a short illness. He suffered a hemorrhage about a week ago and was apparently recovering nicely, when he suddenly fell dead while starting to pass into the front room of his home. For nineteen years he was engaged in the profession of teaching, fifteen years of which were in the schools of Union City.

Rev. Madison A. Harlan

He joined the North Indiana Conference with the class of 1888, and he served the following charges: Williamsburg, Middletown, Logansport, Wheatland Street, Portland, Peru, and Auburn. He then became field agent for Memorial Home. He retired in 1920.

One of the outstanding features of his work was the building of the large Methodist church in Portland, which was dedicated on October 25, 1903. He was appointed by the Conference to raise funds to meet the Chopson gift to establish the Methodist Old People's Home, at Warren, Indiana.

Some years after the death of his first wife, he was married to Mrs. Flora A. French, of Richmond, who survives him.

Besides his wife, three brothers have preceded him in death. One sister, Mrs. Emma Harlan-Horney, wife of James Horney, of Colorado, survives him.

He was a good man and a faithful worker in the Lord's vineyard, and did good work.

He was at one time a member of the Knights of Pythias' lodge, but owing to his increasing church work he found he could not keep up his work in the lodge and resigned.

The funeral services were conducted in the first Methodist Episcopal Church, at Union City, Wednesday afternoon at 2.30, in charge of Dr. Somerville Light, district superintendent; and J. Thomas Bean, pastor.

A quartet composed of Mrs. J. B. Lynch, Mrs. Ella Taylor, C. W. Tritt, and J. B. Lynch, sang "Abide With Me," after which Dr. Morrison offered prayer. Rev. Wilson read the Scripture lesson, and Mr. Tritt sang "Sometime We'll Understand." Bishop Leete sent a telegram of condolence. Interment was made in the Union City cemetery, March 8, 1922.

"A good man never dies—
In worthy deed and prayer,
And helpful hands, and honest eyes
If smiles or tears be there;
He may at last seem worn,
Lie fallen, hands and eyes
Folded, yet though we mourn and mourn
A Christian never dies."

Rev. Eli Davis was born to John and Lucinda Davis, of near Elwood, Indiana, October, 7, 1850. He departed this life from the Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis, Saturday morning, March 11, 1922, at the age of seventy-one years, five months, and four days.

Two things marked his boyhood life—he had a devoted Christian mother and experienced the fellowship of a large family, having seven brothers and four sisters. Four of these brothers, Jesse and Charles, of Elwood, Indiana; Morton and Ellsworth, of Coffeeville, Kansas, together with two sisters, Mrs. Ruth Waugh and Mrs. Mary Ann Waymire, both of Edna, Kansas, remain to mourn their loss of the departed brother.

On April 7, 1870, he was united in holy wedlock with Miss Rebecca Halfin, and for almost fifty-two years they have shared together life's joys and sorrows. The chords of life twine tightly in fifty-two years of happy, congenial fellowship, and to be separated, while leaning so hard upon each other, is a loss that is deeply felt. May the divine Christ graciously sustain our Sister Davis with the sweet assurance of his grace for her every need.

There was born to this union one daughter, Iva, now the wife of A. W. Lockhart, of Albany, Indiana. Two others were reared in this Christian home as children beloved, when their own mothers had been called by death, namely, Mrs. Jennie Hoover, of Marion, Indiana; and Earnest Currey, still at home in Albany, Indiana.

When fifteen years of age, Rev. Davis was brightly converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church at Frankton, Indiana. The activities of his Christian life then began. The church soon recognized the hand of God upon this young life, and at the age of eighteen was given exhorter's license. This was soon followed by a local preacher's license. As a local preacher he served the church in a most acceptable way for several years. He went, at the call of the church, to many a needy field, as a glad evangel of the gospel of the mighty Christ. Revivals broke out under his ministry, classes were organized, and the kingdom of God extended. The church at Hobbs, Indiana, is one instance of such work. So useful was he as a local preacher that he felt the urgency of the call to give all his time to the Christian ministry, and, accordingly, asked for, and was duly admitted to membership in the North Indiana Annual Conference at its forty-second session, held in Newcastle, in 1885. Rev. Davis served well the following charges: Perkinsville, Muncie Circuit, Bunker Hill, Cicero, Albany Circuit, New Burlington, Pennville, Macy, Warren, Valentine, Gilman, and New Waverly.

Circumstance made it necessary for him to take a retired relationship with the Conference fourteen years ago, and during this time he resided in Albany, Indiana. In recent months health failed, but hope brightened. His testimony was that "the gospel he preached for fifty years was a glorious support now in affliction's hour." When it was advised that he go to the hospital, and the loved ones naturally loath to see him go, said to them, "Let us not fear. If I do not come back here, you will know where I am, and where to find me—in the Home toward which I have been journeying all these years." Yes—

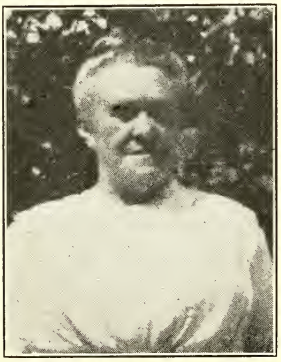
"We speak of the realm of the blest,
That country so bright and so fair,
But oft are its glories confessed,
But Brother Davis knows what it is to be there."

The funeral services were held in the Albany Methodist Episcopal Church, Tuesday, P. M., March 14, Rev. J. A. Beatty, D.D., district superintendent and Conference classmate, in charge, assisted by the pastor, Rev. T. M. Hill, and a number of his many friends of the ministry. The body was borne by his brother ministers to its last resting place in the beautiful Strong Cemetery, of Albany, Indiana.

MRS. ELIZABETH S. ROGERS.

Elizabeth Smith-Rogers, wife of Rev. Alfred S. Rogers (deceased), was born in Moorefield, Indiana, Switzerland County, January 20, 1850, and died March 15, 1922, at her home in Pendleton, Indiana, aged seventy-two years, one month, and twenty-five days.



Mrs. Elizabeth S. Rogers

At the age of ten she united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and for sixty-two years her life was given in full measure to the cause she loved. When nineteen years of age she was united in holy wedlock with Alfred S. Rogers, December 22, 1869. In 1877 they entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and was admitted on trial in the Kentucky Conference. They transferred to the North Indiana Conference in 1882 and till 1891, when Rev. Rogers, on account of failing health, laid down the armor, they were busy at the task of saving souls. The following charges were served: Perkinsville, Farmland, Fortville, and Pendleton.

Mrs. Rogers was a church enthusiast. She loved the Lord's house and his people. The Pendleton church will miss her beloved face and smiling countenance. She has enriched both heaven and earth. We rejoice in her victory.

The funeral was conducted, March 17, 1922, by her pastor, Rev. J. Orr Powell, assisted by Dr. J. A. Beatty and Dr. F. A. Guthrie, after which the body was buried in the cemetery at Pendleton, Indiana.

(d) LAYMEN'S ASSOCIATION.

Elkhart, Indiana, April 7, 1922.

The Laymen's Association of the North Indiana Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, opened at 9.30 o'clock A. M., on the above date, at the First Presbyterian Church.

D. C. Turnbull, of Mishawaka, president for the Goshen District, had charge of the devotions. The singing was led by George E. Meck, president of the Logansport District. After the singing of Hymn No. 56, prayer was offered by C. W. Beecher, of Peru. In response to the call of President Turnbull, twenty-three gave a testimony to their faith in the saving grace of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and at least seventy-five more showed their faith by the lifted hand.

President Starbuck announced the following committees:

Resolutions.—C. C. Cochran, L. H. Bunyan, Loring N. Scott, Arthur H. Sapp, C. H. Neff, and D. C. Turnbull.

Nomination of Officers.—J. D. Coppes, M. G. Fawkes, Ellen Conner, O. N. Cranor, M. R. Krahl, and L. M. Tyner.

At ten o'clock a most interesting and spiritual address on "Our Hope, the Young People and the Master's Plan" was given by Rev. Samuel Polovina, of Bluffton, Indiana. This was followed by a most masterly address by Rev. John C. Willits, D.D., district superintendent of the Niles, Michigan District of our church. Following this a collection of $24.34 was taken up to defray the expense of the meeting and turned over to the treasurer.

Announcement of the annual banquet was made that it would be served at the Congregational Church, and that a charge per plate of 50 cents would be made. About one hundred signified that they would be there.

Mr. A. C. Lehman, of Wakarusa, was called upon to show the work that was being done in Goshen District by the Minute Men as a part of the work of the District Council, his theme being their efficiency. He was followed by D. D. Doering, of the same town, showing the work accomplished by teams in the district.

The session was closed to go to the banquet, the opening to be at 1.45 P. M., for the afternoon session. After the meal was served, President Starbuck introduced Bishop F. D. Leete, D.D., LL.D., who set forth the claims of Christ's kingdom so plainly and the plans for Indiana Methodism so ably that the audience that more than filled the seating capacity was drawn closer to the Master, and we all vowed to do better work for him and his cause than ever before. This was followed by a powerful appeal by Senator C. O. Holmes, of Gary, Indiana, president of the Northwest Conference of Indiana's Laymen's Association, who was our invited guest for the occasion.

After a song by E. S. Miller, singing evangelist, of Chicago, Illinois, the banquet was ended and the Association was called to order by the president, and L. N. Scott, of the Fort Wayne District, led the devotions with song, prayer, and an able exhortation, followed by a song by E. S. Miller.

Senator C. O. Holmes was introduced to the audience and gave an able talk on the work of the two Lay Associations of the northern part of Indiana, then taking up the subject of Indiana's objectives and the world-wide side of our work.

Dr. George R. Grose gave one of his most excellent addresses on the educational phase of Christian work, and especially as touching DePauw University, of which he is the president. He showed that while they have accommodations for a thousand students, they have thirteen hundred enrolled.

Rev. Jesse Bogue, area secretary of the Indianapolis Area, and a favorite with all Indiana Methodists, set forth most clearly the working of the Centenary in a few words, and devoted his address to the broader subject of the philosophy of life.

The Committee on Nominations placed in nomination the following as the members from the six districts in the Area Conference and State Council for the term beginning with the first session of the State Council in the fall of 1922: Fort Wayne District—A. B. Cline, Bluffton; E. Starbuck, Fort Wayne; Clyde Duguid, Fremont; L. B. Hart, Garrett; reserve, C. L. Walters, Decatur. Goshen District—Frank W. Greene, Syracuse; David C. Turnbull, Mishawaka; F. E. Bowser, Warsaw; reserve, John D. Coppes, Nappanee. Logansport District—Charles W. Beecher, Peru; C. C. Cochran, Atlanta; George E. Meck, Kokomo; Fred Beauchamp, Sheridan; reserve, E. J. Humpe, Kokomo. Muncie District—C. H. Neff, Anderson; B. F. Moore, Muncie; Fred E. Hines, Noblesville; B. A. Russell, Albany; reserve, Walter R. Werking, Anderson. Richmond District—O. F. Ward, Richmond; C. J. Gunckle, Union City; Horace L. Burr, New Castle; reserve, M. R. Krahl, Cambridge City. Wabash District—R. G. Eastman, Marion; O. W. Lamport, Wabash; M. B. Stults, Huntington; reserve, Charles F. Smith, North Manchester. The report of the Committee was accepted and the nominees were elected by a unanimous vote, Vice-President Meck filling the chair in the absence of President E. Starbuck:

Mr. J. D. Coppes stated that he was appointed as a committee to present to the Laymen's Association a proposition for the location of institute grounds by the Epworth League Institute, of which he was a director. He stated that he had examined the locations on both Wawasee Lake and on Webster Lake, and that the first one had everything to recommend it, while the last one he could in no way recommend.

The following resolution was presented by Dr. F. H. Cremean touching the Wawasee site, coming from officers of the Epworth League Institute, asking that the Laymen's Association endorse the Wawasee Lake location. A motion was made and properly supported that this be done, and same was discussed by C. H. Neff, Dr. J. C. White, treasurer of the Epworth League Institute; L. N. Tyner, W. T. Colwell, B. E. Disler, D. C. Turnbull, C. W. Beecher, G. A. Studley, and others, and, by the consent of all, the motion was permitted to be pending while a committee consisting of Brothers Beecher, Coppes, and Turnbull was appointed to consult with the commission selected by the Annual Conference to investigate the whole question and to report back to the Association Saturday forenoon. On motion of the secretary, the report of the committee was made an order of business for 10.45 A. M., on Saturday. The motion to appoint said committee was carried by an almost unanimous vote, only one voting in the negative, and he stating that as between the two sites he was in favor of the Wawasee one.

Association adjourned with prayer.

Saturday, April 8, 1922

The Association met at 9.30 A. M. Opened by singing Nos. 371 and 509, Mrs. W. W. Martin playing the organ. Devotions were well conducted by C. H. Neff, president of the Muncie District, followed by song No. 501.

The president made some very appropriate remarks concerning the devotional services as conducted by Brothers Turnbull, Scott, and Neff, and called for the regular order of business, nomination and election of officers. The following report was made by the secretary of the Committee, L. M. Tyner:

"President, E. Starbuck, Fort Wayne; Vice-President-at-Large, Walter R. Werking, Anderson; Secretary and Treasurer, Frank W. Greene, Syracuse. District

Presidents—Fort Wayne, L. N. Scott, Fort Wayne; Goshen, D. C. Turnbull, Mishawaka; Logansport, G. E. Meck, Kokomo; Muncie, C. H. Neff, Anderson; Richmond, Jesse McKinney, Dunkirk; Wabash, A. H. Sapp, Huntington.

"Respectfully presented,

"J. D. Coppes, Chairman.
"L. M. Tyner, Secretary.
"Ellen Conner,
"O. M. Cranor,
"M. R. Krahl,
"M. G. Fawkes,
"Committee."

On motion of L. M. Tyner, they were elected by an unanimous vote.

President Starbuck introduced Mrs. W. T. Arnold, president of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the North Indiana Conference, who in turn introduced Mrs. W. H. C. Goode, of Sidney, Ohio, national vice-president of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, who gave a splendid and timely address on women's interests in the church as well as in the world, showing the many great things that she is accomplishing.

This address was followed by a few remarks by Brothers Greene, Starbuck, and Beecher. Many of the members of the Association discussed the advisability of having the future sessions of the Laymen's Association made a delegate body, the Constitution providing that all members of the Methodist Episcopal Church in this Conference were members of the Association, but nothing was done about changing it.

At 10.45 Brother Beecher made the following report for the committee appointed to meet with the Ministerial Commission:

"Your Committee met with the Ministerial Commission at 8 o'clock. Time would not permit full discussion of the questions involved. A committee of three District Superintendents was appointed, with provision for two laymen to be included on the Committee, to meet after Conference and make a report to the Commission later. Various sites have been investigated, and an option on Webster Lake is held, which expires in September, 1922. When this Committee meets, the advocates of all sites will be heard and their propositions considered.

"C. W. Beecher,
"D. C. Turnbull,
"J. D. Coppes."

The Committee went into more detail concerning the matter, and seemed to believe that a fair hearing would be obtained. On motion, the following two were selected to represent the Laymen's Association: C. W. Beecher and J. D. Coppes.

The Committee on Resolutions made the following report:

"We, the laymen of the North Indiana Conference, in session assembled, are sensible of the courtesy and hospitality of the churches of Elkhart and the members in providing us such splendid quarters for our sessions.

"Whereas, There is much violation of the liquor prohibition laws of this country by individuals and business organizations and much propaganda tending to nullify the intention and purpose of the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America, we urge every Christian man and woman, regardless of denomination or creed, to give support to those intrusted with law enforcement, to protest against the printing of liquor propaganda and suggestive articles in our local and national newspapers and magazines, and by example and personal influence and financial support, do everything in our power to uphold the Constitution and retain the advantages inherent in prohibition of intoxicating liquors.

"Further, we urge our Methodist laymen and lay women in every community to prevent all forms of amusement and gambling devices which tend to lower the moral tone of the community, and

"Whereas, William and Emaline Bashor have given and bequeathed certain lands in Elkhart County to the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church for the conducting and maintaining of 'The Bashor Deaconess Orphanage' on one of the said properties, therefore be it

"Resolved, That this Laymen's Association of the said Conference do hereby express our highest appreciation of this generous gift and plan to assist and care for the unfortunate or neglected children in our Conference; and be it also

"Resolved, That we express our approval, with the ministers of the Conference, that the orphanage be conducted as a Conference institution under its control; and be it further

"Resolved, That the said orphanage, under the direction of its newly appointed board of trustees, shall have the earnest support of the laymen of all our churches and congregations.

"We heartily endorse the full program of our Indiana Area, and we pledge our support in the great forward movement of the church.

"C. C. Cochran, Arthur H. Sapp,
"L. H. Bunyan, C. H. Neff,
Loring N. Scott, D. C. Turnbull,
"Committee."

A second collection was taken at this time amounting to $9.18 and turned over to the Treasurer.

Another song was sung by Singing Evangelist E. S. Miller.

Dr. R. A. Morrison, general secretary of the Preachers' Aid Society of the North Indiana Conference, was introduced, and gave a very instructive report on the work of the department of the church that he represents.

Dr. B. S. Hollopeter, corresponding secretary of the Home for the Aged at Warren, presented a report of the work going on there, showing that the Home had put into operation plans that have been suggested by the Association in years gone by. The district presidents and any member of the Association were asked to forward to the secretary the name of any party that they thought would be inclined to furnish any means for the furnishing of the home or the endowment of rooms there.

President Starbuck appointed Brothers Sapp and Cochran fraternal delegates to the Annual Conference.

Drs. LeMasters and C. H. Smith were presented to the Association as the fraternal delegates from the Annual Conference, and they gave the invitation from said Conference to unite in a joint session at Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church at 1.30 P. M. The invitation was accepted, with thanks, by an unanimous vote.

As at the beginning of the Association meeting yesterday, the members again remembered in prayer and sympathy Dr. Arthur G. Neal, superintendent of the Goshen District.

Thanks were also extended to the people and pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Dr. MacKay, for their many acts of kindness.

C. W. Beecher asked to be relieved from the work of serving on the committee in the Epworth League Institute location. This was accepted, and Arthur H. Sapp, of Huntington, was appointed to serve with J. D. Coppes.

The annual session of the Laymen closed with the doxology and prayer by L. M. Tyner, of Wabash District. The records of the joint session are kept by the Annual Conference Secretary.

APPOINTMENT RECORD

The following Record is a continuation of that in the L. W. Monson Manual, and is corrected to April 1, 1922, including the changes made during the year as reported by the District Superintendents to the Secretary. An effort is made to condense as much as possible by using abbreviations easily understood. The figures "18" and "19" are omitted from the years given, as all the appointments are in these two centuries. In some instances no record is made of the services in other Conferences because of the lack of data.

Abbreviations.—Loc., Located; Miss., Missionary; S., in School; Sn., Superannuated; Sy. Supernumerary; Sup., Supply; R., Retired; Tr., Transferred. SECRETARY.

Explanatory.—To find the length of a pastorate on a charge from the following record it will be necessary to take into account BOTH the FIRST and LAST years of appointment. 02-6 means five years of service on that charge
